Eisenhower Ignores Demagogue Charge

... President-Elect Welcomed To Hawaii

From Press Dispatches

PEARL HARBOR — President-elect Eisenhower enjoyed a tumultuous Hawiian welcome by 100,000 people Thursday and ignored the criticism of President Truman that his mission to Korea was "demagoguery."

Eisenhower personally checked flying schedules and times from Hawaii to New York and decided that he would leave Hawaii Saturday noon in order to arrive in New York by noon on Sunday.

He made it clear that very shortly after he arrives in New York he will get in touch with his old military commander, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, to find out what plan MacArthur has to end the Korean fightinng.

And he made it clear that if he believes the MacArthur plan is feasible he will turn it over to President Truman right away, rather than keeping it for use himself after he assumes the presidency next Jan. 20.

An effort will be made to set up a conference with MacArthur as early next week as possible. MacArthur, in a speech last Friday night, said he had a "simple and effective" plan to end the fighting in Korea.

Two close advisors of President-elect Eisenhower said Thursday night the general would steer clear of any fight between President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur over a peace plan for Korea.

Temporary Farewell

Luncheon Thursday represented a temporary farewell to Bradley and to several top advisors, including Charles E. Wilson, nominated as secretary of defense, George H. Humphrey, nominated as secretary of the treasury, Herbert E. Brownell, named as attorney-general, budget expert Joseph W. Dodge and Generals Lucius Clay and Gerry Persons.

They were all scheduled to leave for New York and Washington Thursday night.

The Honolulu parade of 26 motorcars carried Ike along the Waikiki Beach front, through King Street downtown past the black and gold statue of legendary King Kamehameha, and through winding miles to the Punchbowl Memorial Cemetery where lie 14,000 dead of World War II.

There Eisenhower paused briefly to lay a wreath.

Then he moved swiftly to the Marine base on the opposite side of the island.

While Eisenhower worked on overall problems aboard the Helena, his top advisors, including four who have been nominated to his cabinet, worked on their specific problems.

One thing was certain. There will be a housecleaning in all executive departments. Attorney-General-designate Herbert E. Brownell said he plans to go through his department carefully to weed out men he doesn't want.

New Mac Plan Gets Challenge

Truman Doesn't Believe MacArthur Has Solution

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Truman Thursday blasted President-elect Eisenhower's Korea trip as demagoguery and said he does not believe Gen. MacArthur has any new plan for ending the Korean war.

The chief executive, at an extraordinary news conference, angrily challenged MacArthur's statement that he has a "clear and definite solution" to the Korean conflict.

But he added that any proposal MacArthur has should be submitted not to Eisenhower but to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and accused the former Far East Commander of not acting like a decent man in snubbing the President after Mr. Truman fired him last year.

The President's unprecedented attack on Eisenhower and MacArthur and his rejection of a suggestion that he confer with them on Korean strategy provoked caustic comment from Republican legislators.

But Sen. Hunt (D-Wyo), an armed services committeeman, said that if MacArthur knows how to end the Korean fighting without enlarging the war "it is nothing short of criminal that he has not made the plan known." Hunt said the committee should question MacArthur immediately.

The President said it was suggested to him during the campaign that he make such a trip and promise to find a way to end the war, but that he spurned the idea because it was demagoguery.

Burlington's President Murphy Expects Little Economic Change

Economic conditions for the country generally are good and are expected to remain on nearly the same level in 1953, according to the president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, Harry C. Murphy of Chicago.

Murphy made the observation here Thursday night as he and 12 high officials of the firm neared the end of a week-long inspection tour of the company's facilities in the Midwest.

"By and large conditions appear good and I am at least certain that the next six months will compare favorably with this year," Murphy told The Star. "Next year's budget will be based approximately on the same business expectations as this year's."

Formerly Here

Snow cover in western Nebraska has brightened the crop future there although much more moisture is needed, observed Murphy, who was formerly stationed at Alliance. He also served from 1924 to 1927 in Lincoln as district engineer in charge of right-of-way.

After inspecting the company's facilities in Lincoln with the other officials Thursday afternoon, Murphy reported the yards in good condition. He pointed out that Burlington had made the hump-retarding and switching facilities here a major project during World War II.

Arriving in Lincoln from Denver after touring the firm's lines from Chicago to Texas, then north, the rail officials met informally with Lincoln and eastern Nebraska business and civic leaders at a banquet at the Cornhusker Hotel.

President Murphy, who was host to the group, paid tribute at the dinner to directors John M. Budd and Robert S. Macfarlane. Among the visitors was another former Lincolnite, S. L. Fee, vice president in charge of operations, who began with Burlington as a trainman in 1907.

In addition to Murphy, the following directors were present:

John M. Budd, president, Great Northern Railway.

Robert S. Macfarlane, president, Northern Pacific Railway Co.

George M. Foster, chairman of board, John Morrell Co.

Ellsworth Moser, president, U. S. National Bank of Omaha.

Burlington officers from Chicago were:

L. R. Capron, vice president, traffic.

S. L. Fee, vice president, operations.

A. W. Lavidge, vice-president-comptroller.

H. H. Urbach, general supt. motive power, machinery.

E. J. Brown, engineer of the tracks.

Richard T. Cubbage, corporate counsel.

Arthur D. McLane, assistant secretary.

Friday morning the rail men, leaving here by train, will stop at Ralston and board a bus for a tour of Omaha's new industrial area. At noon they will be guests of Omaha's Chamber of Commerce public affairs luncheon.

Inspection stop-overs will be made at Burlington, Ia.; and Galesburg, Ill., before the tour ends in Chicago Saturday.

Engineering Senior Award To Don Nelson

Don J. Nelson of Pilger, a University of Nebraska engineering student, is the recipient of the Sigma Tau senior award for high scholarship.

Don J. Nelson

Dean Roy M. Green of the College of Engineering presented the $50 award to Nelson Thursday night at the national honorary engineering fraternity's banquet at the Lincoln Hotel.

It is given to a senior member of Sigma Tau who ranks in the top 10 per cent in engineering and needs financial assistance.

An electrical engineering major, Nelson is a member of the Engineers Executive Board, Sigma Tau, Eta Kappa Nu, electrical engineering honorary, and past president of the University chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Institute of Radio Engineers.

Nineteen juniors and seniors were initiated in Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity, at the banquet. Vern Hedge, only living founder of the fraternity, presented the membership keys.

The new members were selected from the upper third of the juniors and seniors in engineering classes on the basis of scholarship, practical ability and sociability. They are:

A-Weapons Are Okayed For NATO

Plans Also Include New Naval Command

PARIS (AP)—The military leaders of the Atlantic Alliance said Thursday night they had agreed upon the use of atomic weapons in a revised strategic plan for the defense of Europe. The plan also included:

The possible use of West German and Yugoslav armed forces.

A new Naval command in the Mediterranean.

Gen. Charles Foulkes of Canada, chairman of the military committee of the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization, made these points at a news conference.

He said the military chiefs also had agreed on the commander for the new Mediterranean setup after a two-year deadlock between Britain and the United States—but refused to give his name.

Highly placed NATO sources said Adm. Lord Mountbatten, commander of Britain's Mediterranean Fleet, is slated for the job.

In disclosing that atomic weapons now figure in the Allies' new strategic plans, Foulkes pointed out that the United States is required by law to withhold from other nations its information on atomic developments.

But this "does not interfere with making military plans," he said. "We don't need to know what's inside them to know what they will do as a military weapon."

Crosby Favors County Control Of Assistance

OMAHA (AP)—Governor-elect Robert Crosby declared Thursday that laws which deal with an individual's personal problems belong at the county seat, not the State Capitol.

Crosby also said, in an address to the Nebraska Association of County Officials, that the major share of responsibility for administering assistance programs belongs at the county level.

"When you deal with a person's poverty, you deal with a local problem," he told the convention.

Problems Differ

"The welfare problems of Douglas County differ from the problems of Cherry County. Local officers should not be bound by a mass of state rules and regulations on the subject."

Six Break-Ins With Total Loss Of $37 Reported To Police

Six break-ins were reported to Lincoln police Thursday which involved a $37 estimated total in losses and damages.

The Sinamark Service Station at 3855 Normal reported a loss of $23 when nine cartons of cigarettes and two boxes of cigars were taken from the station Wednesday night. Police reported a window pane was broken to unlock a window to gain entrance.

The Auto Park, 1309 Q, Thursday reported the second theft in three days. Both times thieves broke into a small office building at the location and took $5 in change, police reported.

Other break-ins were those of the College View High School which reported shop tools missing valued at $3. At Union College Library thieves tried to pry open a door. Failing in the attempt, they broke a window but school officials told police nothing was missing.

Large Meteor Is Seen Over State As Bright Flash

A large meteor bright enough to light up the CAA control tower at the Lincoln Airport was seen about 8:05 p.m. Thursday.

Attendants at the tower, looking across the field when the flash occurred, could not tell from which direction it came. The CAA control tower at Omaha told the Associated Press the meteor was seen there as a flash of bluish green light.

Delegates To AFBF Convention Call For Federal Spending Cut

Wiley Warns U.S. May Halt U.N. Money

Says Adequate Spy Safeguards Needed

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—Republican Sen. Wiley of Wisconsin declared Thursday Congress may curb United Nations funds unless adequate safeguards are established to rid the global organization of American employees suspected of espionage and subversion.

Wiley, ranking GOP member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, at the same time assailed the State Department for what he called "willful blindness to the realities" and denounced it for failing to supply records and facts on American U. N. employees with known Communist ties.

Wiley issued his statement shortly after Secretary General Trygve Lie announced that 14 American U. N. employees have not been fired by him because the United States has failed to supply sufficient evidence that they are "unsuitable."

Acted Where Possible

Lie stressed that he has acted to dismiss disloyal Americans in all cases where the U. S. has supplied adequate evidence. Eighteen have been fired so far and another twenty are said to be slated for dismissal within a month.

Lie disclosed at the same time that he dismissed Irving Schiller, an archivist in the U.N.'s Geneva office, for refusing to testify before the Senate internal security subcommittee on grounds of possible self-indiscrimination.

Schiller was ousted as of last Tuesday.

Wiley declared:

"I am convinced that the temper of Congress and the American people is such that when the 83rd Congress begins to vote funds for the U.N. and its specialized agencies, a rider will be introduced barring the use of such funds after a particular date unless adequate security procedures have been worked out to guarantee that the U.N. and its organs do not remain a base for espionage and subversion."

Price And Wage Controls Are Called 'Unsound,' Flexible Supports Endorsed

From Press Dispatches

SEATTLE — Resolutions drafted by the American Farm Bureau Federation—the voice of 1½ million U. S. farm families—called Thursday for less federal meddling and less federal spending.

The Farm Bureau criticized price and wage controls as "unsound," and endorsed the principle of a flexible farm price support program and struck at what it called "monopolistic practices of labor."

The resolutions highlighted a 72-page array of policy recommendations adopted at the closing session of the 34th annual convention of the nation's largest farm organization.

The labor resolution expressed support of the right of labor to bargain collectively but added a charge that "monopolistic practices of labor have been exercised in a flagrant disregard of individual rights and the national welfare."

Another resolution expressed the belief the federation's previous stand for a flexible price support program still is sound.

Under a 1952 amendment to the law, the existing support, effective for the next two years, is at 90 per cent of parity—the so-called fair price. The conservative-minded federation reaffirmed its favor for the original 1948-49 law for support ranging from 75 to 90 per cent of parity, depending on the surplus.

Full Study

The resolution, as adopted, proposed that the federation directors make a full study of farm price legislation, with an eye toward the expiration of the present 90 per cent law in 1954.

Emphasis throughout recommendations of the AFBF resolutions group was on economy—of dollars and efforts—for the best interests of a nation in a recognized world struggle.

The resolutions found "need for improvement in commodity credit storage programs" and recommended that the crop insurance program "be placed on a sound actuarial basis."

Globaly, America's relations with other nations were declared to be "based on trade—not aid," and both industry and agriculture were urged to share "responsibility for proper balance of imports and exports."

Need for a bipartisan congressional commission to spell out the role of the U. S. in developing and expanding "free world economies" was earmarked as "urgent."

Ban On DuTeau Sidewalk Park Is Restrained

District Judge Harry Ankeny has granted a temporary restraining order against the Lincoln Police Department restraining it from interfering with the parking of cars by DuTeau Chevrolet Company on the sidewalk along the east side of 18th at O.

The Company, after being denied a permit for such parking by the City Council, is once more using the space for cars. The hearing on DuTeau's plea for a permanent injunction against Department interference with the parking will be held at 9 a.m. Dec 19.

In bringing the suit against Chief of Police Joseph Carroll, Attorney L. R. Doyle claimed for the company that the chief's action was arbitrary, capricious and discriminatory.

Doyle pointed out that DuTeau was refused a permit to park even though the parking had been recommended by the police department and the city Welfare and Safety Department. Also, he said, such parking was granted to three other concerns.

The attorney further stated that the sidewalk in question was 30 feet wide. DuTeau, he said, has parked cars on 20 feet of that space at the north end of the building for 25 years, leaving 10 feet for pedestrians.

In comparison, Doyle adds that the sidewalk immediately north of the DuTeau walk is only five feet wide. The sidewalk parking, he alleged, has never been near O street and never interfered with traffic.

The chief of police, said Doyle, is empowered by ordinance to grant a parking permit. The permit would have been granted, he said, but was withheld by direction of the City Council.

Youth Who Got Revenge By Taking 296 Pieces Of Hotel Silver, China, Charged With Larceny

A Lincoln youth's revenge resulted Thursday in his being charged with grand larceny by the state of Colorado after he admitted taking 296 pieces of silverware and china from the Broadmoor Hotel at Colorado Springs.

The 16-year-old youth who had worked at the Broadmoor less than a month, admitted to Assistant Police Chief Eugene Masters that he had taken the silverware and china which he shipped to Lincoln by express, addressed to his mother. The youth's story went something like this:

While working at the Broadmoor as a bus boy, he bought a $4 cigaret lighter for his mother. Having left the lighter in his room, one day it turned up missing. He asked hotel authorities to investigate, but he said they declined.

Then he began his month-long activity of making off with the hotel's knives, forks, spoons, water pitchers, sugar bowls, plates and cups. The treasures were neatly wrapped in the four boxes unloaded in the chief's offices at Lincoln Police Headquarters.

Police Chief I. B. Bruce at Colorado Springs has requested a waiver of extradition, which was signed late Thursday. The boy is now awaiting transfer to Colorado Springs where he will answer the charges made against him.

Police learned of the missing loot when the boy's mother called and reported what she thought was in the express packages. R. D. Sawyer, express agent, was advised to hold the four packages, which at the time had $8 due on them.

Sawyer said he had received an anonymous phone call asking him to ship the boxes to Wichita, Kan., but said he couldn't make the transfer without authority from Wichita. The mother, who remarried a month ago, said after police picked up the boxes that she had planned sending the missing goods back to the hotel.

She had visited the boy for 10 days during his month's stay at the hotel.

Arrival of the boxes in Lincoln was two days prior to the arrival of the boy, who returned to the city Sunday. He was picked up by police Tuesday night. His stepfather said the youth never had been in trouble before, and that he thought his stepson was a good boy, but couldn't get over loss of the lighter which he'd planned giving his mother.

Included in the items picked out of the boxes, which enclosed besides his clothing a football and a sheepskin, were 57 teaspoons, 87 dinner knives, 77 forks, 65 soup spoons, three sugar bowls, two silver water pitchers, two china plates and three china cups. All the silverware carried the name of the Broadmoor Hotel.

'New Clerk' Fails Lincolnite; Check Charge Nets Fine

"It must have been a new clerk at that store. All the others know me, Judge, and won't take my checks when I'm drunk."

The above statement was made by Elmer Hageman, 928 P, as he pleaded guilty Thursday in County Court to a charge of issuing a check with the intent to defraud.

Judge Herbert A. Ronin fined Hageman $50 and court costs.

Hageman was charged with writing a $17.76 check on a Beaver Crossing bank blank to a Lincoln furniture store.

Health Board Meet Set For Interview Of Dr. James Googe

A special meeting of the Lincoln-Lancaster County Board of Health has been tentatively called for Saturday noon to interview a former Nebraska doctor applying for the position of department director.

Dr. Frank T. Lopp, board president, announced Thursday that Dr. James T. Googe of Chattanooga, Tenn., is scheduled to arrive here Friday night and meet with the board Saturday.

Dr. Googe, who is associated with the medical department of the Tennessee Valley Authority, was formerly director of local services in the Nebraska State Health Department in the 1930s.

The former Nebraskan will be taken on a tour of the health department plant Saturday morning by acting director L. A. Sanger, according to Dr. Lopp.

Lord's Acre Festival Marked At Crab Orchard

By JOHN SWANSON
Star Staff Writer

CRAB ORCHARD, Neb.—Residents of this village and of the farms around have a lot of fun each year making donations to their church.

And when the annual Lord's Acre Harvest Festival is staged the school children take over Main Street for a while to add color to the affair.

Thursday afternoon several dozen local youngsters paraded with their pets, bicycles, floats and above all, their carefully garnered "tithes to the Lord," in the form of farm products drawn in small wagons.

The children's parade, slightly more than a block long, was complete with majorettes, a color guard and was led by a boy on horseback carrying a Christian flag. More than 100 persons lined the streets in a raw wind to watch and to applaud the youngsters.

Prize Winners

School District 69 and District 12 won first and second place respectively in float judging. Children winning first prize in the various divisions of the parade were: Richard Buss, Mary Rothell, Connie Armstrong, Arlene Trout and Cynthia Behrens.

After the parade Barney Phelan, Tecumseh auctioneer, opened the annual action of farm products donated through the Lord's Acre program. First on the auction block were the tiny wagon-loads of "tithes" donated by children. These were followed by sales of truck loads of grain, cattle, hogs and poultry.

The Crab Orchard Methodist Church, sponsor of the event, climaxed the festival with a dinner and bazaar in the church parlors Thursday evening. Attending the bazaar were more than 400 persons. Rev. C. LeMont Carlson, pastor of the church, and Venn Rierson were in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Norwegian Ship Sinks In San Francisco Bay

...51 Rescued After Collision In Fog

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—The 8,000-ton Norwegian motorship Fernstream sank in San Francisco Bay Thursday after being rammed by the Matson Line freighter Hawaiian Rancher in a blinding fog.

All 51 persons aboard the Fernstream—including five small children—were rescued in a swift 26-minute "abandon ship" operation carried out without a sign of panic.

Several crewmen leaped into the fog-shrouded sea and were picked up by rescue boats from the Hawaiian Rancher but most of the 40 crewmen and 11 passengers were saved by the Fernstream's own lifeboats.

The Matson freighter, looming suddenly out of the grey murk, rammed into the port side of the 416-foot Norwegian ship about one mile inside the Golden Gate.

Rams Cabin

The bow of the freighter rammed into a cabin occupied by a mother and her two small daughters. They were pinned momentarily in the wreckage but quickly snatched to safety by the mother and hurried to a lifeboat on deck.

The Fernstream was outbound for Manila and other Far East points and the Hawaiian Rancher was inbound with a load of sugar.

The bow of the Hawaiian Rancher was gashed and dented but she proceeded under her own power to the Bethlehem shipyards.

Survivors told of a sudden crash that knocked them down and then how a four-foot wall of water roared through a gaping hole in the Fernstream's side and through the engine room.

SOS Message

Only 26 minutes after the crash the ship settled by the stern and sank beneath the surface of the bay.

An SOS message brought tugs and coast guard patrol boats speeding to the scene. Crewmen who had leaped into the water were quickly picked up and the Fernstream's lifeboats were taken in tow to the Army docks at Fort Mason.

All survivors, several of whom suffered minor cuts and bruises, were given checkups at Marine Hospital.

One passenger, Robert Lyttle of New Orleans, suffered a cut wrist when the freighter's bow crushed his stateroom.

Other passengers included, Mrs. Jane Summerfield and her daughters, Dals, 3, and Cynthia, 1, whose stateroom was also crushed; Mrs. Asuncion Petrocello of Manila and her son, Ralph, 3; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones and their infant son, Robert; Mrs. Elizabeth Thelin, and Harold Nadler.

The coast guard immediately sought authorization from headquarters in Washington, D. C., to begin an investigation.

Wild Reds Overrun 2 Key Heights

Charge Through Their Own Artillery Barrage

From Press Dispatches

SEOUL — Nearly 3,000 Chinese Communists charginng recklessly through their own artillery fire, Thursday overran two key Hills guarding the northern gateway to Seoul.

Torrents of Red shell, from 12,000 to 13,000 rounds, poured into the South Korean positions as the biggest Communist ttack in a month struck the heights—Big Nori and Little Nori.

The Reds already held the north slope of Big Nori, northwest of Yonchon about 40 miles due north of Seoul. B ey lost no time in seizing complete control by hurling the Koreans from the south slope.

Hard-fighting South Korean troops at noon Friday smashed their way to Communist-held trenches on Nori and battled Chinese infantrymen in bloody hand to hand combat until Communist reinforcements forced them to pull back a fourth time.

Wild Fights

Red Chinese commanders threw an additional company into the wild fight for the western front crest at 12:20 p.m. The outnumbered South Koreans soon withdrew to the base of the hill leading to the banks of the Imjin River.

The unsuccessful Allied attack was supported by heavy artillery fire, close air strikes and tanks.

Thrice repulsed by stubborn Chinese defenders, the Republic of Korea (ROK) infantrymen jumped off at 8 a.m. in their fourth attempt to reoccupy the key positions.

Tank Support

The Chinese push may herald a new savage-though localized-hill battle such as raged at Sniper Ridge front a month ago.

The South Koreans had air and tank support in the Nori Hill battles. Patton tanks pumped shells into Red positions in Big Nori and on the saddle leading down to Little Nori. Hundreds of rounds rocked the hills.

Allied warplanes struck Chinese positions with 200 sorties individual flights during the day.

Trio Injured In Three-Way Norfolk Crash

NORFOLK, Neb. (AP)—A three-car accident near Battle Creek, Neb., put three persons in a Norfolk hospital Wednesday night.

The injured are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jacobson, both 71 and their daughter, Miss Gladys Jacobson, 44, all of Creighton. Although severely injured, all three were reported in satisfactory condition Thursday.

State Safety Patrolman Otis Knotwell said the accident happened west of Battle Creek on Highway 275.

A tire had blown out just before the accident on a car driven by Raymond Lordermann, 36, Petersburg. Raymond B. Bode, 36, also of Petersburg, who was driving by, recognized Lordermann and stopped to help him change the tire.

Just as Bode was stepping from his car, it was struck in the rear by the car driven by Jacobson, according to Patrolman Knotwell. The Jacobson car bounded off Bode's machine and struck Lordermann's car, which was in a ditch. The Petersburg men escaped injury.

Miss Jacobson suffered a fractured knee cap and facial cuts; Mrs. Jacobson, severe head and facial cuts, and Jacobson, two possible rib fractures and bruises.

Hooded Stop Signs Are Protested By Dr. Harm

The protest against hooded stop signs at 17th and Van Dorn was erroneously reported in The Star as being made by Dr. Charles D. Harms, 1933, Harwood, when it was actually made by Dr. Charles D. Harms, 1535 Arapahoe.

Dr. Harm, after noting the signs were hooded, added that he felt a four-way signal light was needed at the intersection. At least 40 children, he said, cross the intersection going and coming from school in good weather.

According to Capt. Willis Manchester of the police traffic department, the signs are hooded temporarily pending a final determination of their need. The department is studying reports to the effect that so few children cross at the inteersection that the signs are unnecessary.

Holdrege Doctor Is Defendant In Plane Crash Damage Suit

QUINCY, Ill. (INS) — A suit seeking $51,000 damages in connection with the collision of two light airplanes over a Quincy, Ill., airport was filed in Federal Court Thursday.

The damages were asked by Silas E. Litteral, one of the owners of the Litteral Manufacturing Co. Litteral was a passenger in one of the two airplanes that collided and crashed at Baldwin Municipal Field Nov. 23.

He named Dr. F. Wayne Brewster, Holdrege, Neb., defendant.

Brewster, head of a clinic and hospital in Holdrege, was piloting his own plane and the aircraft in which Litteral was riding was under control of E. E. Levings, of Camp Point, Ill., an instructor.

Brewster is still under hospital care in connection with his injuries but the other two crash victims were released.

The petition set out that both planes were coming in for a landing at Quincy when the propeller of Dr. Brewster's plane chopped into the other aircraft.

The suit asks $11,000 for the loss of the plane and $40,000 for personal injuries to Litteral.

C-47 Wreckage Is Reached By Party

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Word was awaited from a ground party which reached airplane wreckage near the 11,485-foot summit of forbidding Mt. San Gorgonio.

The four members of the 42nd Air Rescue Squadron were sighted from the air as they reached the crash scene. The wreckage is believed to be that of an Air Force C-47 missing on a flight from Omaha to nearby Riverside AFB. Thirteen men were aboard.

CIO Plans T-H Law Challenge

Dunkirk Plant Case To Be Used As Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The CIO said Thursday night it will challenge the constitutionality of provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act in an American Locomotive Co. case in which President Truman is moving to obtain a strike-stopping court injunction.

Arthur S. Goldberg, CIO general counsel, told newsmen the CIO plans to use the case as a test of the legality of the entire national emergency provisions of the labor law.

Truman earlier had instructed the Justice Department to obtain an injunction, probably Friday at Buffalo, N. Y., to stop a 15-week-old strike at the Dunkirk, N. Y., plant of the American Locomotive Co.

The company is producing materials which Truman said are vital to construction of atomic energy plants.

Springboard

Goldberg said the CIO has been awaiting an opportunity to challenge the whole national emergency setup under the Taft-Hartley Act and intends to use the American Locomotive case as a springboard for the litigation.

Goldberg said the main point will be that, in writing the law, Congress does not declare strikes to be illegal, nor does it declare strikes of a national emergency character to be illegal, but merely attempts to confer upon a federal court the right to enjoin emergency strikes.

The CIO official said that in the absence of the T-H Law defining a national emergency strike as a crime, it is invalid under the Constitution for such a strike to be enjoined by the declaration of a federal court.

'Family Concept' Of Recreation Is Told By Speaker

Children's recreation is one form of social welfare service that cuts across all segments of the people, said Julius Samuels, University of Nebraska assistant professor of social works, Thursday noon at a Group Work Council meeting.

Samuels, discussing "Trends in Recreation, Group Work and Group Therapy," said that recreation today emphasizes the "family concept," and pointed to a growing need for educational recreation programs in view of the increasing number of children.

The Group Work Council is a functional organization of the Council of Social Agencies.

Nebraska Float In Ike Inaugural Parade Studied

He added that State Chairman David Martin of Kearney has named James McCrory, Nebraskan now in Washington, to head a float committee.

McCrory is vice president of the Nebraska Society in Washington, and, the governor said, anyone desiring to contribute to the cost of a float could reach McCrory at the civil defense office, Defense Department, at Washington. Cost of a float is estimated at anywhere between $2,000 and $8,000.

Martin also named Abel Shotwell, Omaha, Republican national committeeman for Nebraska, to handle other inaugural details for Nebraskans, such as inaugural parade tickets and tickets to the ball.

Voice Of A Prophet?

Vermont's Sen. George Aiken is well known to Nebraskans. He has visited this state, not infrequently has addressed its people, and has made his views on agriculture known. In a substantial sense, he is the voice of the American Farm Bureau Federation in its stand for price supports of farm commodities based upon a sliding scale instead of an inflexible 90 per cent of parity.

★

Sen. Aiken seems to be coming into his own. While always an influential member of the United States Senate, a man respected by his colleagues, he seems destined to play a larger role in congressional formulation of a farm program. He may or may not have had a finger in the final selection of Ezra Benson to the cabinet post of Secretary of Agriculture, originally believed to have been slated to fall to Rep. Clifford Hope of Kansas, but in advance of the public announcement of the choice of Benson, Sen. Aiken knew which way the wind was blowing.

★

In a letter to the delegates of the American Farm Bureau Federation meeting in Seattle, Sen. Aiken reiterated his views. He said that "during the last few years, we have been drifting quite rapidly in the wrong direction. It is not good for American agriculture to be placed in a state of dependency upon government paternalism and controls. A healthy future can be assured only if farmers are permitted to exercise their own initiative and resourcefulness to their fullest extent."

★

In many American rural communities, that could send down the thermometer outside while raising the blood pressure inside. In these next two years, or by the close of 1954, the American farmer will have to decide what he wants. He may not get exactly what he wants but at least the farm program under which he has been operating is up for re-examination and study—possibly for rigid and far-reaching revision.

★

The industrial areas of the United States are on the march, rebelling against the price of food which figures so heavily in the family living cost. And rural America itself outwardly appears to be divided. There is support for the sliding scale program of farm commodity price supports. There is an equally large if not an even larger agricultural group insistent that the support program should rest upon 90 per cent of parity. And there are those who would scrap the entire thing in the belief there should be no interference by government except in times of emergency. Homeward-bound from Korea, President-elect Eisenhower in a message to the American Farm Bureau Federation said he was not committed to the present program of 90 per cent parity beyond the crop year of 1954 and it would be up to the farmers to formulate their own agricultural plan.

★

Most of rural America in recent years has enjoyed prosperity — excellent production and farm commodity prices at a level to permit profitable operation. They have unquestionably been the best years rural America has known over an unbroken stretch of nearly two decades. The farmer has had a guaranteed price for what he produces in the case of grains and other stipulated commodities. He has pulled himself out of debt, in hundreds of thousands of instances accumulated a cash reserve, replaced his machinery, and has constructed more substantial improvements upon the land. This transition has been almost unbelievable and to be appreciated must be seen first hand. It is reflected in painted farm homes equipped with all or with many of the modern conveniences of farm life, and in the obvious freedom of the farm people from the punishing worry that on not infrequent occasions contributed to agrarian revolt.

★

We are inclined to believe that Sen. Aiken speaks with the voice of a prophet of the impending developments so directly affecting agriculture. A continuance of existing satisfactory economic conditions on the farm could be interpreted as insuring legislation in that direction. An increase in operating costs with a drop in farm commodity prices undoubtedly would produce a lively opposition to any basic fundamental change in America's farm program. We are not so terribly disturbed by paternalism when the going gets tough. In fact, we welcome it. About the only time that rural America lets its guard down is when it is sitting in clover, money in its pocket, financially healthy. It calls upon Uncle Sam in distress—not only it, but American industry and business. It talks about initiative and resourcefulness when it is doing all right—it is the strongest advocate of paternalism when an economic storm affecting agriculture rages.

Auditorium Progress

There could be an absorbing tale built upon the experiences of the people of Lincoln in connection with the city auditorium project.

They gave approval to bonds to finance the auditorium costs in 1939. When they did it, the money voted so cheerfully was believed to be adequate to provide the community not only with an auditorium but with recreational facilities. There were the exhaustive, painstaking original studies conducted by a group of capable citizens. Then the war itself intervened to tie up materials and labor.

At the conclusion of the war, there was a fresh start towards getting the job done. Material and labor costs had soared and more money was needed, so once again the people of this community voted it cheerfully. And again there was indecision resulting in additional costly delay.

Now it appears that with the removal of the ban on steel, there is the reasonable expectation that building activity will get the green light. We hope so, recognizing at the same time that possibly the lapse of 13 years may have cooled some of the enthusiasm, or dampened the interest. Some of the long delay, it appears from this corner, could not have been avoided and some of it was inexcusable if the inability to come to a decision is inexcusable.

Crosby's Role As Santa

Most Nebraskans, we believe, will voice a hearty "Amen!" to Governor-elect Bob Crosby's announcement that he plans to stay on the job at the state house at least until the close of the impending legislative session, with a minimum of interruptions for speaking engagements.

There are some engagements that cannot be avoided. There are developments involving travel which a governor cannot duck. But it is the tradition of this state, generally accepted, that if a man is to keep his eye on the activities of state government, he cannot be chasing around over Nebraska, or traveling to distant points in order to fulfill speaking engagements which furnish him with the opportunity to expound his political views.

In a very large sense, the business of state government is not partisan. There is nothing partisan about the building of roads, the care of wards of the state, the activities of the Department of Agriculture, and a score more of other departments of state government. The problems they present largely are matters of mechanics or details of sound business practice.

The people of Nebraska want a governor at the state house where, after traveling miles themselves, they are able to see him and to talk with him. In short, they want him on the job, not absent from his office making speeches.

This is to congratulate Governor-elect Crosby upon his decision. He could not give his people a better Christmas present.

Not Solved Yet

Now that the tumult of the election in the Saar has died away, it will be possible to settle down to the real business of deciding what will be done with this rich and coveted basin. The elections last week resulted in a victory for the status quo, with the inhabitants of that bitterly disputed border area choosing to retain their link with France both economically and politically. But the real work remains, and that work is a settlement of the Saar issue so that it cannot become a cause of war in the future.

Despite propaganda urging Saarlanders to stay away from the ballot boxes, more than 93 per cent of all registered voters took the trouble to cast their votes. They expressed an overwhelming preference for continuing their present close ties with France and at the same time rejected the idea that they should form a union with West Germany.

The French have good reason for fearing the return of the Saar to Germany, since the steel industry of West Germany already has outdistanced French production. If the Saar were to come once again under German control, the balance of the power would swing dangerously against France. The French government can therefore be no less than greatly pleased at the outcome of the elections.

Both Robert Schuman, the French foreign minister, and Germany's Chancellor Adenauer have demonstrated a statesmanlike awareness of the acute problem of the Saar. To their credit, they have been moderate both in word and action. If their plans are successful, the Saar will serve as a bridge between France and Germany, rather than a barrier between them.

An Independent Phone

Sen. Wayne Morse, the man from Oregon who bolted his party during the presidential campaign and became an Independent Republican, has demanded a separate telephone booth off the Senate floor. Senators frequently receive calls in Democratic or Republican cloakrooms, depending on their party. The conversation is usually of a secret nature not intended for ears of the opposition.

By requesting a phone that is in neither the Democratic or Republican cloakroom, Morse once again proves his independence. He wanted to show, in more ways than one, that he is no party-liner.

Gray For The Hair

There has been a lot of nonsense connected with juvenile "fan clubs," but nothing has occurred which compares to the frivolity of a group of public school girls in Chicago. They dyed their hair gray because, as they explained, they are members of the Jeff Chandler fan club and the movie actor has gray streaks in his hair.

The director of the school properly ordered them out of class, and perhaps it wouldn't be too much to hope that the girls got a sound spanking from their parents when they returned home.

Mid-Pacific Meeting Has Four Objectives

WASHINGTON — Gen. Eisenhower, who worked with and under Franklin Roosevelt all during World War II, is taking a leaf or two from FDR's book.

Roosevelt not only got away on a cruiser or yacht three or four times a year, but usually took members of the cabinet with him. It gave him a chance both to rest and consider long-range problems.

Eisenhower also plans frequent rests from the wear and tear of office grind. While at NATO in Paris, he tried to spend at least part of every afternoon on the golf course. This, and a fairly rigid diet, kept him in good shape.

Meanwhile, the present mid-Pacific cruiser conferences, according to close advisers, have four objectives:

1. A decision on Korea has to be formulated almost right away. Even though Eisenhower isn't President yet, his general views will be honored by the Truman administration. And if there is to be any kind of offensive next spring, the supply lines have to start rolling almost immediately.

2. Get acquainted with the cabinet—Most of his cabinet Ike has met only once or twice. They need to get acquainted. Some domestic problems, such as taxes and budget, will be discussed; also Secretary-to-be of the Interior Douglas McKay is in charge of the Pacific Islands. That's one reason he was invited.

3. Plan some speeches and prepare for some TV appearances—This was the main reason C. D. Jackson of Fortune Magazine, head of the campaign speechwriters, and Emmet Hughes, another speech-writer, were sent for. Eisenhower will have to make some TV and radio statements shortly after his arrival back in the U.S.; also has major speeches to think about for the inauguration period.

4. Major foreign policy — It's sometimes easier to formulate long-range policy when you are away from it. And Eisenhower now has a chance to debate with his new Secretary of State the most important part of our entire foreign policy—the fact that the heart of the Korean War, as the heart of most of our troubles, lies in Moscow.

TAFT'S THROAT

After Sen. Taft issued his historic blast against Gen. Eisenhower's appointment of Martin Durkin as Secretary of Labor, Sen. Wayne Morse, Oregon's Independent Republican, happened to meet Mark Trice, GOP secretary of the Senate.

"Would you like me to recommend a good political divorce lawyer?" wisecracked Morse, who broke with Eisenhower over the Morningside Heights "marriage" with Taft.

Trice, who has been a strong Taft supporter, shook his head ruefully.

"Our boy," he said, "certainly cut his own throat."

POWER BATTLE

It isn't being advertised, but the private power industry's $65,000-a-year lobbyist, Purcell Smith, is pulling strings in Washington, D. C., to block the sale of a utility company 3,000 miles away in Washington state.

Smith, who represents the National Association of Electric Companies, is fighting to stop the Puget Sound Power and Light Company from falling into the public's hands. Ever since the stockholders voted to sell the company to six public utility districts for $94,000,000, lobbyist Smith has been frantically phoning and writing to stop the deal. The sale, he warns, would be a disastrous step toward "socialized electricity."

Even while the stockholders were still voting, Smith brought pressure on the Washington Water Power Company, the state's biggest surviving private utility company, to take over the Puget Sound Company.

When this move failed, Smith helped stir up a proxy fight in an attempt to get the Puget stockholders to change their minds about selling the company to the public. This also fell through, but Smith got a few minority stockholders to go to court to restrain the company from selling its property. This last maneuver may drag out the fight for several months.

Meanwhile, the private power lobby is bringing pressure to repeal the state law, which allows the public to buy private power companies.

NOTE—Lobbyist Smith is backed in his efforts to block the Puget Sound deal by Electric Bond and Share, and the investment houses of Blyth and Company and Bean, Witter and Company.

ADLAI AND HARRY

Here are some of the things that happened between President Truman and Gov. Stevenson during their confidential strategy meeting last week.

Actually one of the most important things occurred not at the White House but between a group of southern senators who are working backstage to take the Democratic party away from Stevenson and run it from the Senate.

To this end, they have been telephoning various Democratic leaders around the country friendly to Sen. Richard Russell to urge him as national leader. However, they don't want to start a full-fledged campaign until after Sen. Lyndon Johnson is made Senate leader, because they fear northern Democrats would balk at a Texan for Senate leader, if they knew Russell, a Georgian, was being groomed as national leader.

Stevenson had heard of the southern strategy before he went to the White House, and talked it over with Truman. Here are some of the things they decided:

1. Stevenson, not Truman is to be the party's leader as far as the national committee is concerned. This was tacit recognition of the fact that Truman has a lot of ill-will in the South.

2. Stevenson told Truman he would come back to Washington after Congress reconvenes and visit with Democrats on Capitol Hill. He wants to get on personal terms with senators and congressmen. What they do in the next four years will be all-important to the Democratic party, Stevenson believes, and he wants to have a hand in it.

3. Stevenson is anxious to find a national chairman who can bridge the gap between northern and southern Democratic senators, and believes Sen. Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming is the most likely choice. Sen. Bill Fulbright of Arkansas has already sounded out O'Mahoney about taking the job, and he seems interested.

4. Stevenson told the President that he wants to keep Steve Mitchell as national chairman for the time being in recognition of his hard work during the campaign. He said it was only fair to give Mitchell a chance to prove himself; also he, Stevenson, felt personally responsible for the campaign deficit and wanted Mitchell to remain until it's cleared up.

5. The governor told Truman he wanted to take a trip around the world to get reacquainted with foreign problems, though he will visit with Congress first.

6. Adlai emphasized that he didn't want anyone to get the idea that he was personally ambitious and already starting to run in 1956. For this reason, he said he had vetoed any idea of regular television reports to the nation and he would not make political speeches unless major issues came up. If any Democratic candidates invited him to speak during the 1954 congressional race, however, he said he would accept, though not seek, such invitations.

SOLUTION IN KOREA

Limited Offensive Suggested To Cut Length Of Front Line

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

Great Britain, taking advantage of the policy exploratory period pending President-elect Eisenhower's inauguration, has come up with a compromise suggestion for the next step in Korea.

Most talk in the United States has centered around the alternatives of a continued stalemate or of an offensive to the Yalu border clearing the Communists out of all Korea.

Other alternatives, such as a blockade of Red China, which might not be too effective, and extension of air warfare to China, which would run the risk of expanding the war, have been largely pushed into the background of pre-inauguration speculation.

☆ ☆ ☆

Now the British are suggesting that a 150-mile Allied advance to the Korean narrows might be possible, although they say they have no more troops for it. They point out that this would cut the length of the line from about 150 to about 100 miles, making it more feasible to carry out Gen. Eisenhower's idea for turning a greater part of the front line job over to South Korean troops.

This idea of letting the Koreans carry the defense job as soon as possible, stressed by the general during his campaign and now taken up by the British, is by no means a mere effort to relieve Allied troops. It has important political aspects.

The greatest hay made by Communist propaganda in the Orient is the idea that the Western powers intervened in Korea for selfish or aggressive purposes. The more Korea does, the more the war becomes, in Eastern minds, defense of Asia against Communism instead of the use of Asia as a battlefield between the West and Russia.

☆ ☆ ☆

Evidence from Europe and from the United Nations is strong that the United States would have trouble getting agreement for another advance to the Yalu. They still believe Red China might not have intervened in the war if the Allies had not driven to her border before, and they are unwilling to take any similar chance with the Russian border on Korea's northeast.

In addition to setting the stage for turning over the front to South Korea, the idea of a limited drive, about 150 miles northward to the 40th parallel, would renew military pressure on the Communists for a truce. There is some reason to believe they once actually wanted one, when it was first suggested, but that consequent relaxation of Allied pressure taught them the values of stalemate.

With the exception of the fear of extending the war, the same arguments can, of course, be made against a limited offensive as against a Yalu offensive. Neither would produce a sure military decision — only stalemate in a new place. An end to the war would depend on political decisions in either case.

There is, of course, the possibility of Allied landings in the narrow Korea waist which, properly timed and manned, might cut off the Chinese armies massed north of the 38th parallel. But these contingents would themselves be in danger of being cut off by Red reserves from Manchuria.

GETTING RICH QUICK

Big money, quick—that is the goal of the young man next door.

"I tell ya," he said, "I'm going to get mine That's what everybody else does, isn't it? The almighty dollar — that's what counts!"

The young man next door is 19, and he had dropped in for a minute to sit and talk about himself, which is a normal thing at 19 and ought to be encouraged. This newest philosophy of his was perturbing, though, and I glanced apprehensively at my own son, who is 14 and a serious listener.

"How are you going to make this million?" I asked, interested in spite of myself.

"By looking out for myself!" he retorted. "If there's any dough going around, I'm going to get my cut! The way I figure it, you can't be too squeamish about stepping on other people's toes if you're going to make money fast. You wait for the big chance—then you take it, and to blazes with anybody who gets in your way!"

"You speaking of robbery, or business?"

☆ ☆ ☆

It developed that he was speaking of business, which he conceived to be a combination of atomic warfare and old-fashioned piracy. At 19 it is easy to think so, if you've been reading the right books, most of them written by people who never got closer to business than a cashier's counter.

"When you get this fortune, what are you going to do with it?" I asked. "Endow a night club?"

"Oh, I'll buy a big house, and a big car, and have servants, I guess. I haven't planned that far, yet. I just know you can do anything you want to, with money—"

"I know a man with a couple of million dollars," I jibed gently, "who wants to grow hair on top of his head, only he can't."

"He'd probably be bald if he was poor, too," he said, and he had me there. "What I mean is, money can give you the things you really want—"

"Like what?"

"Well—things . . ."

☆ ☆ ☆

We talked a little more, and maybe I should have delivered a lecture, only I wasn't in a lecturing mood, and pretty soon he went home. I looked curiously at my son, who had been quiet through it all, and I asked, "Well, what do you think?"

"Well, I think maybe he started at the wrong end. A fella ought to know what he wants, first."

"What would you want?" I asked, really curious.

"I'd rather go fishing!" he grinned. "That doesn't take much money."

I hope he still feels the same way at 19—and at 30. I'd rather have him happy than rich.

THE PEOPLE SPEAK

Expressions Of Faith In Democracy

Faith In Democracy

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I was profoundly shocked by the utter lack of responsibility displayed by the Legion officers concerned in the recent "textbook" affair. It is incredible that they would publicize such charges, admittedly based only on "two or three" anonymous phone calls from persons "believed to be students."

If they were prompted by concern for the safety of the Republic, their action might conceivably be extenuated as stemming from blind and misdirected enthusiam. But if their goal, as Mr. Vinardi seems (quite naively) to intimate, was to increase the membership of the Lincoln post, the action was despicable, completely unworthy of the representatives of any organization.

It seems impossible that any student who has had the privilege of working under Prof. Anderson could have failed to be impressed by his great knowledge of and devotion to the ideals and institutions of American democracy, and likewise by his implacable and effective opposition to Communist ideology. His work at the university has strengthened countless young Americans in their faith that our way of life is far superior to Communism, not only materially but morally and intellectually as well, and that ignorance does not shelter but stifles democracy.

Mr. Vinardi and his associates in this affair would do well to emulate this distinguished scholar in his devotion to American ideals rather than to attempt to victimize him in an ill-conceived or phony crusade.

Privilege Of Freedom

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Freedom is a special privilege enjoyed by few people these days. Each of us has his own basic feeling toward it to develop, nurture and mature.

Must we sign an oath or pledge to be a parent? Granted that the loyalty oath and pledge as published Wednesday morning, Dec. 10, included many of the great principles of our country, I question whether or not freedom is not lost in some way by the necessity of signing such documents.

My baby will attend the Lincoln public schools and if he should choose, the University of Nebraska. I hope his education will include the ability to question intelligently. The "why" of a child is the reason he learns so much in the few years before he goes to school. Must this be subjected to entire restraint as he develops? Now, I'm not saying it shouldn't be guided by experienced minds. I do hope that those adult minds are sufficiently trained.

Perhaps then, when and if my baby goes to a university, his questioning ability will continue. He will, I hope, have the privilege of reading many books with an open mind. Perhaps Dr. Eugene N. Anderson will be a member of the history department not only to help relate historical facts to modern happenings but also to use many books — some good, some not so good—for how shall my son know good from poor unless he experiences both? My son won't "swallow" everything he reads or hears because his training will teach him to think. Then he will begin to be educated.

Junior G-Men

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Hooray! Those guardians of our liberties, the American Legion, are off on one whiz of a camgaign to purify our colleges and schools of subversives, and incidentally, do a little recruiting on the side. Maybe we will see an old-fashioned book-burning, Legion style. Won't that be something? No doubt they will purge Darwin's "Origin of the Species."

What magnificent effrontery some people have! Perhaps they would like to use Joe McCarthy's tactics on Prof. Anderson. You will recall that McCarthy wanted to get Gov. Stevenson "backed up in a corner so he could use a club on him."

Let's all join the Legion so we can witch-hunt, too. It will help the membership, you know.

Frankly, I am ashamed for those men, and I feel a deep resentment at the whole sordid mess — men with "big ears and fat stomachs" out to catch subversives — grown men acting like junior G-men.

Sermon On The Mount

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The continuous urging by Drew Pearson of the use of the Sermon on the Mount as the basis of peace leads me to answer his column in the Nov. 21 Star. In this editorial he tells of happening to go to church. And as a result, we got a sermon from both sides of his mouth at the same time. From one side we got the Sermon on the Mount and the statement that bombs never killed an idea, while from the other side inferring that we had one year to make Christians of the Russians by scaring them with the hydrogen bomb.

Mr. Pearson fails to consider that the Sermon on the Mount was in use for about a thousand years in Russia and longer over the rest of the so-called civilized world. And it not only failed to produce peace but then as now was a source of dissension and contention, being the cause of many wars and much cruelty. The Sermon on the Mount cannot be disassociated from Christianity.

Our founding fathers rejected religion as dangerous to liberty and I can conceive of no surer way to destroy our democracy than the one being urged by Drew Pearson. If we are forced to launch a crusade, let it be based on the concepts of our founding fathers under which the dignity and welfare of the common man has been advanced more in 150 years than 2,000 years of the Sermon on the Mount. The crusade would then at least have some semblance of reason and we could be united.

If Mr. Pearson thinks so much of the Sermon on the Mount, he should take a lesson from it — St. Matthew 5-37, "But let your communication be Yea, yea; Nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil."

That Bryan Statue

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Since Aristotle was wrong in declaring it a law that two objects of unequal weight would vary in the rate of speed at which they fall, and also in view of the fact that wise old Ben Franklin admitted he had often been wrong, therefore I confess I may be wrong in this, although it seems to me that the proposal for the removal of the Bryan statue from the north entrance to the state capitol springs directly from narrow partisan prejudice and nothing more commendable.

I am led to this opinion from the fact that no objection is raised against the statue of Lincoln standing on the west walkway to the capitol. Although in many ways Lincoln and Bryan were the same kind of great Americans, Lincoln happened to be a Republican, whereas our greatest Nebraska statesman was only a Democrat.

I can see nothing wrong from an esthetic point of view in the present position of the Bryan statue and, according to the commission's report, much higher authorities than I have okayed the arrangement from the breadth of their understanding of architectual and statuary art. That, I should think, would settle the controversy. Bryan's greatness is identified with the state much more than with the city of Lincoln; hence the appropriateness of keeping his statue at the capitol rather than removing it to a site near the City Hall or elsewhere.

O. BYRON COPPER.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I see they are talking now of moving the Byran statue to the lawn east of the City Hall. What a place for the statue of a great and good man! I think if the people of Nebraska were allowed a voice, they would select Bryan Memorial Hospital as the most logical place.

Meany Says Odds Against Merger Of 2 Labor Groups

WASHINGTON (INS) — AFL President George Meany said Thursday he will confer with CIO President Walter Reuther this month about chances for merging the two big labor organizations but that the odds are eight to five against unity.

Meany also expressed his readiness to talk with Sen. Robert A. Taft, Ohio, and other GOP congressional leaders about labor legislation, including amendments to the Taft-Hartley L w.

The former Bronx plumber who became head of the AFL two weeks ago to succeed the late William Green, admitted the obstacles that lie in the way of AFL-CIO merger. But he said the federation will enter unity negotiations in a forthright, determined spirit.

In a speech before the National Press Club, Meany also declared:

1. The AFL intends to cooperate with the incoming administration and does not expect a "crackdown on labor" by the General.

2. The AFL is "very much disturbed by the lawlessness on New York City's waterfront, which has involved members of the International Longshoremen's Union, an AFL affiliate.

3. Meany promised a purge of any Communists in the AFL and declared that no federation officer "can place the welfare of his union or of its members ahead of the welfare of the country as a whole."

4. Unlike the CIO, the AFL favors the continuation of price-wage controls and wants them tightened "so as to make them effective." The CIO has called for an end to wage controls.

5. The AFL will keep on participating in politics but will not ally itself with any party and, until the next election, will concentrate on raising the living standards of American workers and on fighting Communism.

Hearing Set Dec. 19 On Railway Suit Dismissal Motion

A hearing on the motion for dismissal of the anti-trust suit brought by the United States against the Association of American Railroads, et al, has been asked for 10 a.m. on Dec. 19.

The notice of hearing was filed Thursday in Federal Court here by Attorneys Maxwell V. Beghtol and Earl Cline, both of Lincoln, Douglas F. Smith, Chicago, and R. V. Fletcher, Washington, D. C., representatives of the moving defendants.

The effect of the notice will be to require the attendance of the parties to the case or a written notice requesting continuance of the hearing until a later date.

Federal Judge John W. Delehant expects to conduct the hearing. The judge, who has been away from the office since early October for treatment of an eye disorder, is expected to return to his office Monday for some work.

Parties named in the notice were Joseph T. Votava, Omaha, United States Attorney; Guy C. Chambers, Lincoln, attorney for J. P. Morgan & Co., and William I. Aitken, Lincoln, representing Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and Sir William Wiseman.

Chambers and Aitken are legal representatives of excepted defendants in the motion for dismissal of the case filed on Dec. 5.

Hearing continuance is also possible on a motion from the bench by Judge John W. Delehant.

Also filed Thursday was an affidavit by Roger V. Fletcher, one of the attorneys, and allied papers attesting the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission which the defendants allege exempts roads with respect to anti-trust laws."

Defendants in the case—which was brought on Aug. 23, 1944, by Wendell Berge, formerly of Lincoln, and then assistant attorney general—include more than 140 railroads, a long list of executives, rail officials, and certain New York financial concerns.

Thursday's filings were Nos. 120 and 121 in the case which has included numerous hearings and volumes of documentary evidence.

The suit was brought for injunctive relief and the government alleged that the railroads has unlawfully engaged in joint action in respect to rates, fare and charges through rate bureaus or conferences.

Omaha Cigar Store Operator Fined On Disorderly Charge

OMAHA (AP)—Joe Digilio, operator of the International Cigar Store, Thursday was fined $50 and costs by Judge Lester Palmer for being keeper of a disorderly house.

Digilio posted a $100 appeal bond. Five men charged as inmates were fined $1 and costs each.

The arrests were made Dec. 4 by the police morals squad. Officers said they found a poker game in progress in back of the store.

The International recently figured in the demotion of Detective Sgt. Morris Fanger to patrolman. He was charged with frequenting the spot.

Crippled Ship Riding Nicely In Mild Seas

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS)—Radio communications to the West Coast Trans-Oceanic Lines reported Thursday that their crippled freighter, Columbia Trader, was riding moderate seas nicely in the Atlantic and that the crew of 37 men is in no immediate danger.

Capt. Berger Jacobs of Portland is skipper of the freighter. His crew signed on at Atlantic coast ports.

Kit Conyers, manager of West Coast Trans-Oceanic Lines, said they were in constant radio contact with the Columbia Trader. He gave the freighter's location as 750 miles off Brest and 400 miles north of the Azores.

Clinical Service For Psychiatric Patients to Begin

OMAHA (AP)—Starting Monday, psychiatric clinical service will be made available to Western Nebraskans through a clinic at St. Mary's Hospital, Scottsbluff.

The service formerly hadn't been available in the western end of the state.

Dr. Cecil L. Wittson, director of the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute in Omaha, said the new western clinic will provide psychiatric diagnosis, treatment and consultation services.

A psychiatric social worker will be at the clinic daily and a psychologist and psychiatrist will be available at scheduled times, he said.

Any Nebraskan may make use of the clinic's services but extended treatment will be given only to those unable to afford private care, according to Dr. Wittson.

The clinic is sponsored jointly by the Board of Control and the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

Monopoly Suit Filed Against 3 Soap Firms

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Justice Department Thursday filed monopoly charges against the nation's three major soap producers and asked a federal court to dissolve the companies into new separate organizations.

Attorney General McGranery announced the action, which is against Procter and Gamble Co., Cincinnati; Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Co., Jersey City, N. J., and Lever Bros. Co., New York City.

McGranery said the three companies sell at least 75 per cent of the nation's household soap supplies and 93 per cent of the new synthetic detergents.

The civil anti-trust suit, filed in Newark, N. J., federal court, charged that no new producer in the household soap business has been able to capture as much as one per cent of the market since 1926.

The complaint charged that the companies have used their power to control prices of soap to grocers, to consumers and to suppliers of raw materials such as tallow and grease.

Sunday Closing Battle Monday

Hearing At City Hall Is Slated

The City Council chambers will be the scene Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. as grocery and hardware dealers square off against drug store owners in a battle over the proposed new Sunday closing ordinance.

The proposed ordinance would close all stores on Sunday except those allowed to remain open for necessary purposes such as drug and medical supplies and those who close another day of the week for religious purposes. Those stores allowed open for necessary purposes, drug stores included, could sell nothing on Sunday that was ordinarily sold during the remainder of the week by those stores which must close on the Sabbath.

The ordinance has been pushed by attorney Richard Vestecka, representing the grocers and the Independent Hardware Dealers of Lincoln.

'Unlimited Business'

In a statement issued Thursday, Vestecka stated that "Competitors in hardware and associated fields who are permitted to open their stores for necessary purposes on the Sabbath are opening them for unlimited business seven days a week contrary to both the present and proposed Sabbath closing ordinance.

"To meet this unfair competition, the hardware men face the possibility of depriving themselves and their employees of a day of rest on the same day that their children are out of school, that other commercial and manufacturing establishments are closed and that divine services are conducted."

The drug store operators have claimed that practically no major appliances or hardware items are sold in drug stores on Sunday. They further claim that any purchase on Sunday is essential so far as the purchaser is concerned.

PANTY RAID SEQUEL — Memories of a warm spring evening, thrown water and youthful exuberance have been revived as coeds at the University of Nebraska receive checks for property damage suffered in last spring's panty raids. Looking at their checks are (left to right) Marilyn Matthews, Logan, Ia., ag college junior; Nanci DeBord, Omaha arts and sciences senior, and Marlene Wyatt, Harrisburg, teachers college senior. The checks ranged from 58 cents to $5.80. (Star Photo.)

'Panty Raid' Damage Payments Made To Coeds, Sorority Houses At NU

Memories of "panty raids" which plagued college campuses last spring are being recalled this week as many University of Nebraska coeds receive checks for lingerie and other possessions carried off by the male "raiders."

Approximately $400 in checks has been mailed to women and houses which submitted damage lists, reports Frank Hallgren, assistant dean of student affairs. The amount represents about 58 per cent of the total claimed for personal loss and house damage which was between eight and nine hundred dollars.

Seven sororities which submitted damage lists, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi, were also mailed checks for the percentage amount.

Money for the refunds was collected from those men known as participants who wished to continue in the University.

Chapman Convicted On Call Girl Charge

NEW YORK (INS)—Wealthy dress manufacturer Sam Chapman was convicted Thursday of procuring cafe society models as call girls and given a 210-day suspended jail sentence.

Chapman, ex-husband of dress designer Ceil Chapman, had vigorously denied he had introduced a string of young models to friends as "classy call girls."

Magistrate Hyman Bushel found Chapman guilty on seven counts in mid-Manhattan Court and sentenced the defendant to 30 days on each count. Bushel then suspended the sentence because "the defendant has no previous record."

Chapman had faced a possible maximum sentence of six months imprisonment on each of the procuring counts.

'Career Day' Tabbed A Success

Seniors Are On Job For Whole Day

By JOHN SWANSON
Star Staff Writer

FAIRBURY, Neb.—A unique experiment in giving students a chance to find just how well they will like the careers they will choose in the near future was carried out here Thursday.

More than 100 Fairbury High School students left ool for a day and took jobs in their chosen fields. The "career day" saw the students earnestly trying their hands at everything from railroading to reporting and when the day was over sponsors pronounced it a success.

Eldon Miller, head of distributive education at Fairbury High School and originator of the career day idea, said the school is pioneering in the trial location of students. The plan has never before been used in Nebraska, and to Miller's knowledge, only once before in the country.

Varied Jobs

Girl students were pledged for a day as sales clerks, nurses, telephone operators, cashiers and teachers. The boys really went in for varied jobs. They worked as firemen, rookie policemen and even as physicians and ministers. The railroad co-operated by permitting the seniors to board freight trains as firemen and brakemen.

The Fairbury Chamber of Commerce co-operated in locating the students in an effort to make the event an improvement over previous high school career days in which the students only heard lectures on their chosen careers.

Miller said the real accomplishment of the event will be evaluated when reports on the day of training sent in by sponsors and students are studied.

Top Post May Go To Martin

DENVER (AP)—Methodist Bishop William C. Martin of Dallas, former resident bishop of the Kansas-Nebraska area, is considered among some church leaders as the probable new president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

He held the Kansas-Nebraska post from 1939 to 1948 before being assigned to Dallas.

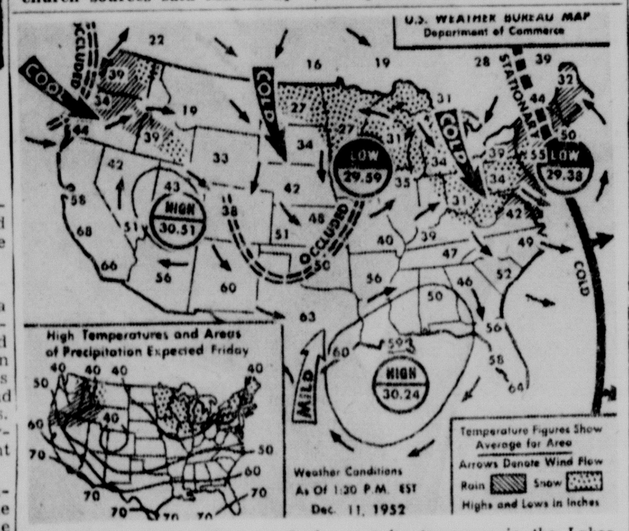
The 29-denomination council, holding its general assembly here, will elect new officers Friday, including a successor to the present president, Episcopal Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill of Greenwich, Conn.

Although they would not be quoted by name, informed church sources said Martin appeared to be the leading candidate for the post.

The 59-year-old Bishop Martin, a vice president of the Methodist Council of Bishops, automatically will become president of the bishops council next year. This is the highest executive post in his denomination.

R. B. Denney To Head Chamber At Fairbury

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP)—Robert B. Denney, Fairbury attorney, is the new president of the Chamber of Commerce, succeeding Ernest Wiebe. Denney will take over his new post Jan. 1.



SNOW FORECAST—Snow is forecast for tomorrow in the Lakes region, northern New England, western Montana and the upper Mississippi valley. Rain is expected over the Columbia plateau and over northern California. Temperatures will rise in the Ohio valley, the south Atlantic states, the Gulf states and the northern Plains states. It will be colder in the New York metropolitan area, New England and the central Mississippi valley. (AP Wirephoto Map Thursday Night.)

Rites Saturday For Loup City Victim Of Blast

LOUP CITY, Neb.—(Lincoln Star Special)—Funeral services for Jack McFadden, 36-year-old farmer fatally burned in an explosion at his home, will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church here.

A lifetime resident of this vicinity, he died Wednesday night of injuries suffered Tuesday.

The pilot light in a bottle gas stove on the McFadden farm had gone out during the night and McFadden had struck a match to light the stove when the explosion occurred. One burner on the stove apparently had been open allowing gas to accumulate.

McFadden's clothing caught fire and though his wife rushed to his rescue and helped extinguish the flames, he suffered burns over 80 per cent of his body.

Wife Also Burned

Mrs. McFadden suffered some burns as a result of her efforts.

Late Tuesday the Sacred Heart Hospital at Loup City issued an emergency call to a Lincoln pharmacy company to rush blood plasma for McFadden. To assure swift delivery of the plasma, Air National Guard officers in Lincoln dispatched a light "L-19" plane to Loup City.

Capt. Albert B. C. Davis Jr., pilot, found the landing strip at Loup City too soft for landing and was forced to fly to Ravenna in the dark where local motorists lighted the landing strip with their auto headlights.

McFadden is survived by his wife, Helen; two sons, George, 6, and Ray, 4; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McFadden of Loup City; three brothers, Russell of Taylor, Ray of Spain and Lee of Loup City; and a sister, Harriet, who is teaching in Japan.

Blaze Leaves Family Homeless

Both Home And Garage Total Loss

OMAHA (AP)—Robert Smith and his family of five were homeless Thursday after fire destroyed their home, garage and contents.

Firemen said nothing was saved. The blaze was believed to have started from a defective oil stove in the garage. It swept rapidly through the garage and to the house.

Fireman Edward Sank was hurt when he stepped in a hole in the floor of the house. He was treated for an injured left leg.

Firemen said there was no fire insurance on the house, garage or a car stored in the garage.

West Coast's Road Problems Aired At Meet

OMAHA (AP)—When California public officials discuss their highway problems, they talk in terms of a "billion dollars," Nebraska county officers and highway commissioners were told Thursday.

It will take that much money to modernize California roads, said Harry Bartell of Alameda, Calif., president of the National Association of County Officials.

"California auto dealers put 1,000 new cars a day on our roads," he declared. "But our roads are 20 years behind the times."

He estimated the billion dollar figure was necessary to give California the six-lane freeways it needs to handle its traffic problem.

The billion dollars, Bartell went on, must come from either a bond issue or an increase in the present 4-cents-a-gallon gasoline tax.

Aid From Coast

In another meeting, county treasurers were told how California will help Nebraska's steel-short auto license officials.

Many California auto dealers buy cars in Omaha. When these reach the West Coast, new California plates must be purchased. Rather than throw away the old plates, California officials will return them to Nebraska and they may be re-issued.

Owen Boyles and Dale Rogers of the Department of Roads and Irrigation explained that Nebraska motorists will receive a '53 tab rather than new plates next year. These will be added to both front and rear plates.

The majority of county treasurers voiced opposition to a proposal that the issuance of new plates be staggered. They favor the present method of issuing all plates at the beginning of the year.

"They fear it would mean 12 peak periods instead of one," Boyles explained.

Clerks of districts courts heard an explanation of the new simplified naturalization law by Charles Rain of the Omaha offce of the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization.

Farmers Told Filing Error In Social Security

Many Nebraska farmers are making the mistake of filing for social security coverage as a self employed person, Joseph S. Sewall said here Thursday.

The Lincoln Social Security Administration manager spoke at the income tax short course in session at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture campus.

He said that social security offices in Nebraska are now in the process of contacting nearly 2,000 persons, including farmers, to obtain clarifying information regarding the self employment income shown on their 1951 returns.

"Practically all of the contacts in Nebraska," he said, "are necessary because the nature of the business as shown on the report is not clear or there is a question as to whether the business was covered by the social security program."

The Friday program of the income tax short course includes the presentation of information on the advantages of the cash method and accrual method of filing farm income tax returns.

Rev. Price Is Dead; Former Nebraskan

Word has been received by Nebraska relatives of the death in Compton, Calif., of Rev. E. V. Price, a retired Nebraska Methodist pastor. His death followed an extended illness.

Rev. Price at one time served at Havelock.

He is survived by his wife; a son; three daughters; and two brothers, Rev. E. W. Price of Schickley and F. H. Price of Newman Grove.

Murphy Is Appointed Regent At Creighton

OMAHA (AP)—Bert Murphy, Omaha business man, sports enthusiast and civic leader, has been named to the Creighton University Lay Board of Regents, Very Rev. Carl M. Reinert, president of Creighton, announced.

Murphy fills a vacancy created by the recent death of Ambassador to Ireland Francis P. Matthews.

Circle K Service Club Forms At NU

'STUDENT' KIWANIANS — Seventeen University of Nebraska students have started a parallel organization to Kiwanis Club, the Circle K Club. President of the new group which is still open to membership, is Don Marti of Lincoln, (third from left, seated). Others at the table are: (l. to r.) Bob Perry, Don Parker, Kiwanis International chairman of boys and girls work; Marti, Lee Keller, Circle K vice president; Herb Henderson, Lincoln Kiwanis president, and Dr. Arthur Hitchcock, director of the University of Nebraska Junior Division and Counseling Service. (Star Photo.)

A new organization of University of Nebraska students, to be known as the Circle K Club, was formed as a parallel organization to the Lincoln Kiwanis Club.

The organization, a service group like its sponsors, will meet twice a month, once with the Lincoln Kiwanis Club, and once alone for luncheon and programs.

First president of the group, elected at the organizational meeting at the Student Union, is Don Marti of Lincoln.

Vice-president is Lee Keller of Council Bluffs, who is a Kiwanian in his home town and believed to be the youngest Kiwanis Club member in the United States.

Secretary is Doug Marti of Lincoln, and treasurer, Jim Brown of Lincoln.

Lincoln Kiwanis Club co-chairmen of the committee in charge of Circle K are Dr. Arthur Hitchcock, director of the University of Nebraska Junior Division and Counseling Service, and Bob Perry.

Membership is open to all male University students. Presently there are 17 members.

The first regular meeting of the group will be at noon Jan. 8, at the Capital Hotel.

20 Per Cent Drop In Cattle Prices Is Seen In 4 Years

WINNIPEG (AP)—United States cattle prices are due for a 20 per cent slump in the next four years as beef-on-the-hoof nears 100 million head, highest production level in the country's history, Wayne Darrow, president of Farm Reports Inc., Washington, said Thursday.

In Winnipeg to address the Winnipeg Stock Exchange annual meeting, Darrow said in an interview the U. S. herds are reproducing so fast the American population gain can't keep up.

Toppling down from "a cock-eyed peak" last year, he predicted prices over a five-year stretch will have dropped a total of 35 per cent.

New Atomic Submarines To Be Most Stealthy And Deadly Ships Of The Navy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new atomic submarines will be the most stealthy and deadly ships of the Navy.

Rear Adm. Homer N. Wallin, chief of the Bureau of Ships, disclosed this Thursday in an article written for Collier's magazine.

Wallin had this to say of the commander of the USS Nautilus, one of two nuclear powered undersea boats being built:

"He will be able to cruise so deep and silently that an enemy will have great difficulty locating him, and even greater difficulty damaging him. There will be no throbbing of engines, no exhaust bubbles, no surface wakes to disclose his whereabouts.

Can Lie Still

If necessary this vessel can lie utterly still for long periods of time; longer, certainly, than any enemy surface ships aare likely to cruise around exposing themselves to the nautilus' acoustic sound-tracking torpedoes."

The Navy is working on devices to enable the crew, like the atomic submarine, to stay underwater for long periods, Wallin said. In addition to the storing of oxygen in high-pressure bottles, the Bureau of Ships "is working on a device to take oxygen from water" and this may be ready in time for installation in the Nautilus. Carbon dioxide will be absorbed by chemicals.

The atomic sub will have even a special tube for getting rid of garbage, a problem in present day convention submersibles.

In appearance, the Nautilus will be somewhat similar to any submarine, except for a blunt bow unlike the knife-edged bow of present underwater boats. Wallin said the reason for this is that the submarine will spend more time submerged then on the surface.

Resistance to movement is greatest at the surface, where water and air meet. Therefore, a vessel is able to travel much faster below the surface than on it.

Wallin wrote that "I cannot say and really do not know" when the Nautilus will be completed or how much she eventually will cost. The Navy, he said, has set aside about 30 million dollars for the job.

Chamber Of Commerce Group Okays Plan For New Viaduct

The proposed plan for construction of the new O Street viaduct has been approved by the Streets and Highways committee of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

The recommendation submitted by Charles Heyl, committee chairman, was also approved by the board of directors.

"We have notified the county commissioners of our position and have asked to present our views when the general hearing is held next Tuesday," Heyl said Thursday.

Heyl pointed out that the Chamber will suggest to Mayor Anderson that the City Council defray all costs of appraising the property which will be affected by the new viaduct construction. It is understood this will be several hundred dollars.

"It seems only proper that this expense should be borne by the city, since the county has been asked to take the area under its jurisdiction in order to qualify for federal funds with which the $1,500,000 structure would be built," he continued.

"The proposed viaduct is important to all citizens of Lancaster County, not just those living in Lincoln. It is, in fact, something that will be used by thousands of other Nebraskans and by cross-country travelers" said Heyl, who urged all Chamber members to attend the Tuesday hearing at the Courthouse.

Major Revolt Brews In Japanese Liberal Party

TOKYO (Friday) (INS) — A major revolt brewed today in the Japanese Liberal party and threatened to unseat the government of Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida.

Some 40 Liberals supporting Yoshida's intra-party rival Ichiro Hatoyama, banded together formally Wednesday in a "Democratization League" and sounded warnings that they might bolt the party, end the Liberals' slim majority in the Diet (Parliament), and force Yoshida to resign or call a new election.

Two party leaders, Secretary General Joji Hayashi and Executive Board Chairman Shuji Masutani, attempted to meet the Prime Minister Thursday, apparently in an effort to work out a compromise, but Yoshida claimed illness and declined to see him.

Hayashi was reported ready to resign his party post if the dissident factions could not be brought together.

The Liberal party dissidents have demanded that Yoshida restore to the party two ousted pro-Hatoyana leaders, Ichiro Kono and Tanzan Ishibashi, and democratize the operation of the party.

The situation was expected to come to a head Monday when the lower house of the Diet is scheduled to vote on the supplementary budget. The opposition parties have indicated they will attempt to introduce a non-confidence vote through amendments to the budget.

Explosive Hauling Application Heard By Rail Commission

The Railway Commission Thursday heard the application of Watson Brothers Transportation Co. for authority to haul explosives anywhere in the state over an irregular route.

The commission overruled a motion for continuance filed by Red Ball Transfer Co., of Omaha, and Petersen and Petersen, Inc., of Grand Island.

The Burlington and Union Pacific Railroads also oppose the application.

Union Freightways of Omaha has a similar application pending.

The firms seek unrestricted authority to haul explosives between defense establishments in the state. They are the only Nebraska trucking companies with contracts to haul explosives, the testimony showed.

The trucking company explained that because of the dangerous cargo hauled, they co-operated with the state safety patrol, city police and the I.C.C. in determining most satisfactory routes.

Only 30 trucking companies in the United States are engaged in the hauling of explosives, the testimony showed, and a national association of these companies seeks to assure maximum safety.

Two Years' Probation On Charge Of Burglary

Benjamin R. Teeters, 18, 842 W. Q, who pleaded guilty to a burglary charge, was placed on two years' probation to George H. Meyer, adult probation officer, by order of District Judge John L. Polk Thursday.

Teeters admitted stealing 37 muskrat hides and one mink hide from the Elmer Burbach garage at 1118 Charleston on Dec. 5. The hides have an approximate total value of $60.

Exciting News Always Is Fun

WE'VE HEARD more exciting news in recent moments — Some of it has to do with travel—that's really the exciting part—a portion of it involves guests — and the remainder, as you already may have surmised, is holiday chatter. Had a visit with Dr. Ruth Leverton, via the telephone, and discovered that she leaves week-end after this for New Orleans from where, on December 24, she will sail on an Alcoa freighter for a twenty-one day cruise — The cruise includes stops at Puerto Rico, Trinidad, Suriname (Dutch Guiana) and various ports of call.

* * *

ANOTHER EXCITING trip is that planned by Mrs. Donald W. Miller who will leave later in the winter for northern Africa — The African continent, as you may remember, is not a new venture for Mrs. Miller —Two or three years ago she visited the southern half of Africa and indulged in a tremendous safari across the desert.

* * *

HAVE NEWS of several Lincoln people who have passage for Hawaii some time after the holidays—and as soon as we get them down on the dotted line, we'll let you know.

* * *

PLANE-ING in from Philadelphia today will be Mrs. Francis Boyer who will spend the week-end as the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Barton.

* * *

ARRIVING FROM the west coast in a few days from now will be Mr. and Mrs. Guy Negus who are to be the holiday house guests of Mrs. Negus's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raymond, and who also will visit Mrs. Negus's sister, Mrs. Ruth Raymond Gavin.

* * *

MENTION OF Mrs. Gavin reminds us that we heard her son, Major Raymond Gavin, would come from Washington D. C., to spend Christmas with his mother.

* * *

ALSO ON THE Christmas guest list will be Colonel and Mrs. Myers Cather and their two daughters, Paula and Jane, who plan to arrive from Salina, Kan., the day before Christmas to spend the holiday and the Christmas week-end with relatives. During their brief stay Colonel and Mrs. Cather and their daughters will be the house guests of Mrs. Cather's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McKay — However, on Christmas morning the visitors will join Colonel Cather's family for the Christmas tree and Christmas morning brunch at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cather, and again will be with the Cather family for a late afternoon Christmas dinner at the home of Colonel Cather's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Cox.

* * *

HEARD, TOO, that Colonel and Mrs. Cather are to be the incentives for the dinner on Friday evening, December 26, when Mr. and Mrs. Kent Tupper will be host and hostess at their home. Twelve guests are to be invited.

But before we leave the Cathers we should tell you that Mrs. Cather was in Lincoln for a Monday-to-Thursday stay this week, and that on Wednesday she was the honoree when Mrs. John Kos was a coffee hostess at her home.

* * *

OUR PRE-HOLIDAY meanderings also include Tuesday, December 23—the day that Mrs. Emmett Junge is hostess to the members of her birthday club in celebration of Mrs. E. J. Faulkner's birthday anniversary which, in case you didn't know, is on December 24.

* * *

THESE ARE the days when dancing club party committees are rolling up their sleeves and planning the last details of Christmas parties—In the case of the Merrimyx Dancing club, which is to have a party on Saturday evening at Hotel Cornhusker, the planning is being done by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ostiguy, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Gaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Lovaine Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Al Todd. Naturally the Christmas motif is to be featured, and there is to be quite a long guest list which includes Capt. and Mrs. Wilton E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schwertfeger, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. James Carrier, Mr. and Mrs. Jack King, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ellsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Maser, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yaussi, Mr. and Mrs. William Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rohrig, Dr. and Mrs. George Place, and Mr. and Mrs. Sahn of Seward.

* * *

THE FACULTY Dancing club has a Christmas dinner dance planned for Friday evening, December 19, when the members will find that the committee has planned a traditional Swedish Christmas for their pleasure. The party is to be held at the Student Union, as usual, and arranging the affair is a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sahs, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Hal Allen, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCalla, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Conard, Judge and Mrs. Harry Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Matelski, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holtzclaw, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Graumann, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koehler.

* * *

HAD SOME December brides and their courtesies to talk about, too—but it seems that we'll have to wait until tomorrow for those—

More than three hundred fifty fathers and pupils attended the annual dinner and program, Tuesday evening, at Irving junior high school when the dads were the honored guests. In the picture, showing a portion of the speakers' table, is William F. Stenten who presided as master of ceremonies at the program.

The dinner arrangements were under the direction of members of the Irving PTA.

Wedding Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Joyce Hosch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hosch of Scotia, to Dean G. Walkup, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walkup of North Loup, took place on Friday, November 28, at the Broadway Methodist church in Council Bluffs, Ia. The Rev. Gerald S. Bisbee read the lines of the high noon ceremony.

Mrs. Harold Adams of Lincoln, was her sister's matron of honor and only attendant and wore an afternoon frock in the deep violet shade with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mr. Adams served as best man.

For her wedding, the bride wore a dressmaker suit of gray wool with contrasting accessories in navy blue. Her shoulder corsage was of pink carnations, and she completed her costume with pink pearl bracelet, necklace and earrings, brought to her from Japan by the bridegroom.

Camp Fire Plans Party

In charge of arrangements will be group members under the leadership of Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Fay Knox and Mrs. Joe Johnson.

Bride at Home Ceremony

Lighted white candles in branched candelabra, and a spreading arrangement of white gladioli, screened the fireplace at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Weston for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ardis Weston, to William E. Bundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bundy of Gretna, which was solemnized Wednesday evening, December 10. The lines of the 8 o'clock service were read by the Rev. C. E. A. McKim, pastor of the Tabernacle Christian church.

As the forty guests, including members of the family and a small group of friends, assembled, Miss Gloria McKim sang "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied by Mrs. C. E. A. McKim, pianist, who also played the wedding music.

Mrs. Robert R. Varga was her sister's matron of honor and only attendant and wore an ankle-length frock in the gold tone fashioned with a softly draped bodice and full skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink feathered carnations.

The bride appeared in a waltz-length gown of white bridal satin and nylon tulle. Brief cap sleeves and a portrait neckline accented the satin bodice, and beneath a draped peplum of satin, the tulle skirt was gathered into fullness. A coronet of satin patterned with seed pearls held her lace-edged veil of illusion, and she carried a white satin Bible ornamented with a shower of white rosebuds and satin ribbon and centered with a white orchid.

MRS. WILLIAM BUNDY

Keith Weston of Ashland, cousin of the bride, served Mr. Bundy as best man.

A small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Upon their return from a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bundy will live at Gretna. For traveling, the bride wore a brown and blue checked wool suit with brown accessories.

Resignation, Exchange Spark Probe

A letter, an answering statement and a resignation marked action Thursday in the probe by the American Legion in Lincoln into reports of the use of an alleged subversive textbook at the University of Nebraska.

The letter was sent by Roy Sheaff, chairman of the investigating Legion committee, to Miss Ruth Raymond, editor of The Nebraskan, campus newspaper, in regard to an editorial that appeared in the newspaper on Dec. 10.

The statement was by Miss Raymond, answering Sheaff's letter.

The resignation from the investigating committee was that of Charles Thone, assistant to the state attorney general. Announcement is expected to be made Friday on the appointment of a replacement, when Legion Commander Mrs. Maryellen Lorton will meet with other committee members.

In declining the post, Thone stated, "Official considerations compel me to refuse the appointment to this investigatory committee. I so advised the committee at its first meeting and the commander of the post."

Mrs. Lorton indicated a statement from her on Thone's action might also be forthcoming Friday.

Outgrowth Of Charge

The investigating committee is the outgrowth of a charge made Monday night by Joe Vinardi of Omaha, chairman of the State Legion Un-American Activities Committee, that "a certain professor in the University uses a certain textbook" and that "students can't swallow the stuff."

The book was later disclosed as "The State of Asia," used as a text in a history course taught by Prof. Eugene N. Anderson last spring.

Sheaff reported after a Thursday meeting that his group will soon receive a complete copy of the report on the Institute of Pacific Relations filed last July by a Senate Judiciary Committee sub-committee. The book in question was issued under the auspices of the Institute.

The sub-committee report states in part that "the net effect of the IPR activities on United States public opinion has been pro-Communist and pro-Soviet, and has frequently and repeatedly been such as to serve international Communist, Chinese Communist and Soviet interests, and to subvert the interests of the United States. . ."

All Read Book

Sheaff reported that all members of the committee have now read the book in question. The committee, he said, has three copies of the book. Other committee members are John Slothower Sr. and Donald Wood.

The main work of the committee to date has been the draft of the letter to Miss Raymond.

"Senator Joe McCarthy may be in Wisconsin and Sen. Pat McCarran may be in Nevada," she wrote in her editorial, "but the residents of Lincoln, Neb., have the equivalent of these men in the Lincoln American Legion Post 3—specifically in the Legion's Un-American Activities committee."

Sheaff Letter

The following letter from Sheaff was addressed to Miss Raymond:

"I was astounded by the editorial which appeared in the Daily Nebraskan Wednesday, December 10th. After a recent meeting of the American Legion (at which I was not present) certain statements were allegedly made. The following day a committee was appointed to determine the American Legion's attitude toward the publicans of the Institute of Pacific Relations as factual material. This background of events led to your unwarranted editorial.

"The committee to which you refer had not yet met, yet your editorial has attacked the committee and its members for their actions and statements. Could it not be that your editorial is guilty of the things you express to abhor—of accusations before obtaining facts in an open and fair manner—?

"Our committee plans to meet to discuss in the traditional American manner a problem with which we are confronted. No member of the committee has prejudged or formed an opinion, but are individually accused of being 'witch hunters' merely because we have been appointed to a committee.

"One portion of your editorial to which I feel I must take exceptions:

'The American Legion and its Investigating Committee have gone way out on a limb and might if they had any sense call it all off and retract their statements of the last two days.' (bold face supplied).

"The membership of the American Legion contains some of the outsanding citizens of this community and of communities throughout the this nation. Its members are found in positions of leadership throughtout this nation and I have no doubt as their maturity, judgment or sense.

"If you, as author of the editorial, had been sincere in your desire to protect the University, you would have disregarded the matter originally rather than have issued incorrect rash statements in order to focus public interest upon the matter.

"The journalistic reporting of the actual events has not been truly recorded. By attacking the American Legion and the Committee you have avoided discussing the relevant issue that the Committee is to report upon.

"You may, however, rest assured that our Committee will make no rash nor unbased accusations. We will meet together, discuss the problem and report our findings to the group which has asked us to determine for them our opinions.

"I deeply regret that you have made your attack upon the American Legion and the members of a committee which have not met nor issued any statements, either singularly or collectively."

Raymond Answer

In a statement answering the letter, Miss Raymond said:

"I am seriously disturbed that this entire matter seems headed, by Mr. Sheaff's wide distribution of his letter, into the realm of a feud between two persons of differing beliefs.

"However, I am delighted that Mr. Sheaff and his committee have finally announced publicly that the work of their committee will be 'to determine the American Legion's attitude toward the publications of the Institute of Pacific Relations as factual material.'

"By late Wednesday evening The Nebraskan's editors were still unable to obtain from the committee members a statement indicating just what investigating they would be carrying out.

"Mr. Sheaff is incorrect when he says that the editorial of Dec. 10 attacked the committee and its members for their actions and statement. The editorial does not.

"Nor are Mr. Sheaff and his committee anywhere referred to as 'witch hunters' by Nebraskan editorial comment.

"Mr. Sheaff also attacks my sincerity in defending Mr. Anderson and the University and also questions the factual reporting in The Nebraskan. Such an attack upon the integrity of the editor and the staff of The Nebraskan is unfounded and unfortunate."

Bill Hayes Writes The Firing Line

(General Manager Bill Hayes of Sherman Field is guest author of The Firing Line today.)

By BILL HAYES

WHY am I in baseball? Let me tell you.

A little boy tightly grasped his father's hand as they climbed the long ramp to the second balcony at Yankee Stadium.

"Hurry up, daddy, I want to see Babe Ruth hit a home run."

Babe Ruth

Not wishing to have the boy build false hopes, his father replied: "Son, he doesn't always hit a home run."

The boy scowled and plodded on. They took their seats just as Red Ruffing threw the first pitch to Tom Oliver, the Red Sox leadoff batter. You will remember Tom as manager of the Lincoln A's in 1947.

The boy sat quietly until the last half of the first inning when, with Earl Combs on first, Babe Ruth came to bat.

"Hit it, Babe! Come on, Babe! We want a homer!"

As if he heard, The Babe belted it over the rightfield fence.

Three innings later, Babe came to bat again. The boy shouted the same encouraging words. Again The Babe hit the ball over the wall.

As the Yankees came to bat in the sixth inning, the father turned to the boy and said: "Son, Babe, will be up again this inning. Don't expect him to do it again."

Babe again strode to the plate. He seemed to be looking up into the second tier. Then, on the first pitch, he drove the ball high into the right field stands.

I was that little boy. My faith has kept me in professional baseball.

THIS portion is addressed to the baseball fans of Lincoln.

This week will decide if you are to continue as a member of the Western League. I believe you will.

I have reached this opinion after a week's visit to your city because of the things I've heard and the attitudes I've felt.

The people of Lincoln are a generous, civic-minded, clean-living people. Baseball fits into this type of community. Under a new local ownership, it will take a permanent place more than before.

This will be your ball club. Every cent that is taken in will belong right here in Lincoln. Every player who comes here, as well as the manager and myself will feel that Lincoln is his home. You'll join with me in great pride for your team, its organizers and owners. You will be one of them. You will not fail.

I like Lincoln and hope that Lincoln will learn to like me.

Baseball is of utmost importance to any community. It publicly displays the fact that you are living in a progressive, civic-minded city. It presents an opportunity for clean, healthy recreation for young and old. It has done immeasurable good in reducing juvenile delinquency. It teaches the spirit of team play.

This competitive spirit is as American as apple pie or ham and eggs. It presents an outlet for the energies of the baseball fan and causes relaxation for thousands who live under tension all day.

Baseball fits into the pattern of every city in our great land. Baseball is vital in Lincoln.

Under an independent ownership, professional baseball in Loncoln will take on a new look. Our ball club will have dash and color. We'll have established ball players interspread with young men on the way up the ladder.

We will have hustle, fight and the will to win. We are going to be your kind of team. Your ball park will be dressed up to welcome you and the welcome mat will always be out.

The management will always have an open door for you, our friends. We won't neglect your every need. Our concessions will be home-operated and supervised. Our hot dogs will be hot. Our cold drinks will be cold.

We will present contests, shows and special events at Sherman Field, but never to interfere with the game.

We will start on time and do our best. We can't win every game. No one knows where we will finish, but who ever we play, will know they have been in a game.

If working hard to please you will fill the bill, just go along with us. Give us an opportunity to show you what can be done.

By WALLY DeBROWN

We're bombarded so much these days with the miracles of electronics, atoms and projected space flights that ordinary folks feel sort of left out of things. But there are still plenty of little everyday things for us to turn our talents to.

For example, the New York board of education had trouble getting kindergarten children on the right busses. The younguns couldn't read any more than a boll weevil . . . so some genius painted different animals on the side of each bus. And any 5-year-old knows whether he goes home on the rabbit bus, the monkey bus or the duck bus. Yep, the little things still count.

Here's a domestic safety note. The other day a fellow said, "If your wife insists on learning to drive, I wouldn't stand in her way if I were you." To that we say amen. Don't let bad weather stand in your way of trading off the old bus on a later model used car, because you can shop in comfort in our well lighted, heated used car showroom on the corner of 17th & N. Players, Coaches, Wives To Watch

Defiant Sooners To Send Gridders To Orange Tilt

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — University of Oklahoma regents, in a defiant gesture toward a Big Seven Conference bowl ban, voted Thursday to send the football team to the Orange Bowl—as spectators.

The restriction last month frustrated a desire by the Sooners to accept a bid to play in the New Year's Day game. The regents, who had left the decision up to the team, then took this attitude:

"If they can't go as players, they'll go as spectators."

The regents approved sending 28 lettermen and their wives to Miami by chartered plane at a cost of $10,463. The coaching staff, their wives, Ken Farris, athletic business manager, and his wife will accompany them.

When the trip was proposed a few weeks ago—after the bowl bid faded—there was serious doubt as to whether it violated a conference rule against gifts to athletes above room and board and tuition scholarships.

By their action, taken without comment, the regents apparently decided the bowl trip is not a breach of the athletic code.

Conference disciplinary action could result if faculty representatives rule otherwise.

An even thornier problem—the North Central Association Prohibition against subsidizing athletes—also was tackled by the regents. But no action was announced.

Dr. George L. Cross, university president, spent the entire morning presenting a report on the situation and afterward declared: "It is out of the question" that the Sooners bolt the conference—as reported persistently in recent weeks—to enter the Southwest Conference, which permits bowls. All conference members but Arkansas belong to an accrediting agency more liberal on athletic scholarships than the Big Seven.

Only Arkansas of the Southwest Conference is a member of the North Central group. Others belong to an agency which permits subsidization.

Feeling ran high on the campus favoring a bolt when the Big Seven rule prevented Oklahoma accepting an Orange Bowl bid.

Boxing On Tap Here Dec. 20

An amateur boxing card featuring a trio of top Lincolnites will be offered local boxing fans Dec. 20. Sponsored by the State Fair Board in cooperation with the Lincoln Athletic Boxing Club, the program will be run off at the Fairgrounds arena.

Al Noble, Larry Emery and Bob McKee all will be matched in featured bouts. Noble's appearance will be his last before Capital Citians, since he is service-bound.

There will be at least 10 bouts. Among the clubs to furnish boxers are the Police Boxing Club of Omaha, Manning of Omaha, Offutt Air Base, Omaha Boxing Club, and Ashland Legion.

The program will be the second amateur card of the season at the Fairgrounds.

Hans, Pat Slated In Mat Headliner

A bout featuring two of the nation's outstanding—in their respective categories — grapplers headlines next week's Fairgrounds mat card, Promoter Adam Krieger announced today.

Hans Schmidt, foremost among meanies, squares off against the favorite of the nation's grapple fans, Pat O'Connor. While neither is a stranger to local fans, their two-out-of-three, 60-minute limit bout Tuesday night will be the first time they've met in the local ring.

Leading up to the bout, Billy McDaniels, 235-pound St. Louisan, clashes with Omaha's Joe Dusek in another two-out-of-three with a 45-minute ceiling in the semi-windup.

Chris Zaharias, 230 pounds, of Denver is Iron Mike DiBiase's opponent in the one-fall, 30-minute prelim. DiBiase, recently returned from a tour of Canada, grappled to a draw with Danny Plechas Tuesday night.

CRETE — The Crete Cardinals successfully opened their bid for top honors in the Trans-Nebraska conference Thursday night by trouncing Sutton, 65-44.

Don Uhynalak and Terry Hokenstad shared scoring honors for Crete with 18 points apiece. Ten of Uhynalak's points came from the foul line. Dick Unterseher tallied 18 to lead Sutton's scoring.

Bluebirds In Home Cage Debut As Three Local Preps Travel

By WAYNE PANTER
Star Sports Staff Member

CATHEDRAL makes its home basketball debut on the Irving court against Sacred Heart of Norfolk at 8:15 p.m. in the only at-home game on tonight's prep docket.

In other frays, Lincoln High journeys to Norfolk for an 8:15 tussle, Northeast plays at Omaha North and College View faces Omaha Westside there.

Coach Vince Aldrich, well-satisfied with his Bluebirds' 53-38 opening-game victory over Concordia of Seward, plans to stick with his same starting five composed of Bill Heidrick and Denny Costin at forwards, John Fagan at center, and Joe Clark and Tom Studnicka at guards.

Expected to see considerable action is Tom Brady, who, along with Darvin Jennings and Dave Kubitschek, turned in good performances against Concordia.

Lyle Weyand, Lincoln mentor, again tabbed his regular starters —LeRoy Butherus and Bob Barnett, forwards; Ernie Hollibaugh, center, and Ted King and Don Erway, guards—for the Norfolk game, slated for 8:15.

The Panthers, always tough on their own court, are expected to keep the Links in hot water. With Erway, Barnett and Butherus showing the way, Lincoln took its opener from Fremont, 50-33, a week ago.

College View still seeks the victory trail after dropping its initial game to Wilber last week, 34-23. Woody Oaks, whose work sparked the Viewman, will start at forward tonight in a shuffling of the lineup. Bill Thierstein will be at the other forward, Louis Meinecke moves from forward to center, and Paul Westbrook and Jim Edwards will open at the guard slots positioned last week by Oaks and Thierstein.

Omaha Westside was defeated in its opener last week by Plattsmouth, 55-28. The game is to be played at the school gym, 89th and Pacific Sts., and will start at 8 p.m.

A trio of juniors who looked well in Northeast's first two games will probably see plenty of action as the Rockets take on Omaha North, which last week lost to eBnSon, 36-69, and to South, 53-56. Juniors Don Turek, Larry Delaney and Paul Leacox turned in outstanding performances as the Rockets lost, 53-57, to Scottsbluff and beat North Platte, 54-48.

The probable starters include lanky Bob Cook at center, Dave Tullis and Norv Holverson at forwards and Jim Haberlan and Kenny Forbes at guards.

Injured Ed Price Will Play Sunday

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Price, the National Football League Giants' star fullback, says he will play against the Cleveland Browns in the season's final game Sunday.

Price suffered a badly bruised hip early in last Sunday's game against Washington.

Lincoln Baseball Fans Pledge Over $14,000

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

A half-way point was struck Thursday in Lincoln's $25,000 community drive to keep Western League baseball at Sherman Field.

In a meeting at the Hotel Cornhusker, the fund-raising group of 33 announced that $14,591 had been pledged during the first day of soliciting.

"We have just barely skimmed the surface," commented A. L. "Pat" Minier, who with A. Q. Schimmel is co-ordinator of the drive.

A poll of the committee revealed that $5,000 more was expected within the next 24 hours.

Harold George, executive secretary and vice president of the Western League, told the group that the time limit had been extended until Saturday noon. At that time, another meeting of the committee will be held at the Cornhusker.

"The city of Lincoln is certainly showing the Western League that it wants baseball," George told The Star. "We want Lincoln just as much."

George pointed to the success of local ownerships in the Western League.

Only Omaha, a St. Louis Cardinal chattel, and Des Moines, property of the Chicago Cardinals, are owned outright.

"And John Holland has been general manager at Des Moines so long that people there consider the Bruins a home product," George commented.

"Sioux City, Denver, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Wichita are all locally owned and get their players through a working agreement with big league teams," George said. "Their position is a great deal like Lincoln would be with Bill Hayes as general manager. Adam Pratt runs the show at Sioux City, Dick Mullins at Wichita, Neil Hobbs at Pueblo and Bob Howsam at Denver."

George said that he believed a local ownership is more advantageous in the long run.

"It gives the fans a feeling of being part of the operation and that means better gate receipts."

Pledges for stock were pouring in from the big business man to such upstanding citizens as two little newspaper boys who came up to Schimmel's office with $2 and a note saying they wanted to see baseball stay here.

The group urged the people of Lincoln to send in the certificate printed in The Star. It is an exact duplicate of the actual cards for pledging of the stock which goes at $10 a share, and is just as valid.

All of the committee members reported a spontaneous response.

"I have not had a single turndown," one member told The Star. "It's just of matter of time and how many people I can get around to see."

An official Western League meeting will be held in Lincoln Sunday. If the necessary $25,000 is in the coffers by then, the league will loan an additional $15,000 and baseball will be assured for Sherman Field in 1953.

Schimmel said that the drive would continue even after the $25,000 is raised. He pointed to weather hazards and the fact that the independent operation "will need as much of a nest egg as it can get."

Bill Hayes, general manager at Sherman Field, continued to be surprised by the rabid response.

"From my observations, taking baseball away from Lincoln looks impossible," grinned Hayes. "The people simply won't stand for it."

The fact that the city is donating $3,000 for Sherman Field improvement add further brightness to the picture. The money will be used for a tiling system to improve the drainage, plus oiling the parking lot and other privileges.

"A lot can be done with that ball park," added Hayes.

Ex-Hollywood Manager Takes Pittsburgh Post

By JOE BRADIS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fred Haney, who won two pennants in four years as skipper of the Pacific Coast League Hollywood Stars, took on the biggest managerial headache of his baseball career Thursday—pulling the luckless Pittsburgh Pirates out of the National League cellar.

Haney signed a one-year contract as Pirate manager to succeed Billy Meyer, who resigned after the 1952 campaign. Meyer, bothered by stomach trouble, said he couldn't take another tough season at the helm of the rookie-dotted Bucs.

Neither the Pirates nor Haney disclosed how much money the new 54-year-old manager will draw for his second whirl in the major league field general department in 11 years. Haney piloted the St. Louis Browns from 1939 through 1941.

Signing of Haney surprised no one. But his one-year contract surprised everybody. There had been considerable conjecture that Haney wanted more than a one-year pact, the kind General Manager Branch Rickey prefers to dish out. But Haney flew here from the Coast, talked a while with Rickey and the agreement was sealed.

Haney returned to baseball in 1949 with Hollywood after six years as a radio commentator. Hollywood won the pennant in 1949, finished third in 1950, second in 1951 and first in 1952.

Haney broke into the major leagues in 1922 with the Detroit Tigers. He also played with the Boston Red Sox, the Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Cardinals. Twice he hit over the .300 mark.

His first managerial job was with the American Association Toledo Mudhens in 1935. He moved up to the Browns in 1939, finishing eighth. His club was sixth in 1940 and 1941. He returned to Toledo in 1942, finishing fourth. The next season he took a job as a radio commentator.

In 11 years as manager, Haney's clubs won two pennants, landed second twice, third once, fourth once, fifth once, sixth once and eighth three times.

ADD THAT AGAIN!—That's what A. Q. Schimmel, president of the Lincoln Civic Baseball Association, tells Arch Baley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, when the latter reports on the progress made in the drive to keep Western League baseball in Lincoln. When the recount was made, it totaled over $14,000 and everyone began to breathe easier as the first day's pledges sent the drive off to a flying start. Looking on is Ell Murrell. (Star Photo.)

Game Commission Reports First Deer Hunt Violation

CHADRON, Neb. (AP)—The State Game Commission Thursday reported the first violation of the Nebraska buck and doe hunting seasons.

Game Commission personnel arrested John Friede of Sidney charging that he attempted to take a deer without a permit. Friede was fined $5 and costs and his rifle confiscated in Morrill County Court in Bridgeport Thursday.

Friede was arrested two miles west of Lisco Wednesday night.

Meanwhile another 87 hunters killed does Thursday bringing to 647—almost 65 per cent of the 1,000 permit holders—the checked in game at the game commission stations.

The Thursday total was well under those of previous days, and it was expected that hunters would have increasing difficulty finding does in the remaining three days.

Nebraska's amazing injury-free record was extended another day. Not one gun accident with a resultant injury has been reported to the game commission since the first deer hunt in 1945. Total injury-free hunting days to date stands at 76 days or two and one-half months of hunting.

Crawford maintained its leadership in doe hunting traffic checking 22 deer during Thursday operations. Crawford's season total is 183. The other stations and their accumulative totals are Chadron 125, Bridgeport 130, Gering 116, Harrisburg 63 and Harrison 30.

Program Of NCAA Sent To Members

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A 10-point program intended to strengthen enforcement machinery of the NCAA and its allied conferences has been mailed to 406 member schools by the association's membership committee.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, who released the report Thursday, said the program has been approved and adopted by the NCAA council, 17-man policy directing body of the association.

The report will be brought before the full membership at the NCAA's 47th convention in Washington, D. C., Jan. 8-10.

The committee recommendations include:

"Sponsor a meeting of conference representatives to consider ways and means to strengthen conference enforcement machinery, to provide for inter-conference investigating assistance and to forestall the conference enforcement activities of the NCAA.

"Develop ways and means whereby the NCAA can obtain on-the-spot checks of the veracity of replies to inquiries from the association.

"Define in clear and definite terms the disciplinary authority of the council and the authority of the annual convention.

"Discuss with representatives of the various state high school athletic associations possible means of assisting one another in attacking problems of mutual concern."

Meat Shoot Scheduled

The Nebraskans lost ground in the free-throw department, missing 12 of 34 shots. Southern canned four gratis shots in the last minute to nab the win.

Mike Mallette was high for Wayne with 12 points.

Omaha Cards Sign Pact With St. Joe

OMAHA (AP)—The Omaha Cardinals of the Class A Western League have signed a working agreement with St. Joseph of the Class C Western Association for 1953, it was announced Thursday.

President Robert H. Hall of the Omaha club said the agreement was with W. L. Hagerty of St Joseph. St. Joseph formerly was affiliated with the St. Louis Cardinal farm system. It has no working agreement in 1952. Omaha is a Cardinal farm club.

Prep Cager Hits 108 Points In Two Games

MANHASSET, N. Y. (AP) It's no fault of Jimmy Brown that Manhasset High School hasn't won both of its first two basketball games.

The 6-foot senior chalked up 53 points as Manhasset lost its first game, 93-67, to Mepham. Then Wednesday Brown dropped in 55 but this Manhasset won, beating Farmingdale 94-60.

PCC Votes To Offer Renewal Of Rose Bowl Pact To Big Ten

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The Pacific Coast Conference Thursday voted to invite the Big Ten Conference to renew its Rose Bowl pact for three years when the present contract expires Jan. 1, 1954.

The coast faculty representatives stressed the point that the invitation will not be extended in the event there is any anti-bowl legislation enacted at the NCAA convention in Washington, D. C., early next month.

The NCAA convention will receive a report at that time from its extra-events committee, which is headed by Wilbur Jones of UCLA. The nature of the report on the bowl games has not been disclosed, but there are indications that it will continue the go signal for the major post-season games in the nation.

Thursday's action by the Coast Conference refuted a statement made recently by Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State College, who criticized the Rose Bowl game and added that he believed most of his colleagues on the coast felt the same way he did.

The Rose Bowl agreement is a three-way deal between the two conferences and the Tournament of Roses Association of Pasadena. The coast has until March 15, 1954, to renew its relations with the tournament association.

The announcement was made as the conference held the final sessions of its winter meeting.

Pending official action, however, speculation persists that the Big Ten vote will be 6-4 or 7-3 against renewal.

Some Big Ten officials insist that the series will be resumed if Southern California defeats Wisconsin Jan. 1 to give the PCC its first Rose Bowl victory since the series began.

If the vote were cast now, the best guess is that Iowa, Michigan State, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin would oppose continuation of the series. Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio State would be for it.

Illinois, however, would be on the affirmative side only unless a team is limited to one appearance in three years.

Rocky Will Defend Title Early In 1953

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Rock Marciano will defend his title against Jersey Joe Walcott in late March or April, promoter Jim Norris said Thursday.

The president of the International Boxing Club said five cities, including Chicago, are being considered for the return bout and that decision on the site would be made within a week.

Norris met Thursday with Al Weill, who manages Marciano.

Fremont Hosts Benson Bunnies In Top Cage Tilt; Northeast Rockets To Omaha North Domain

By JIM CLARK
Star Sports Staff Member

THE prep cage spotlight swings to Fremont tonight when the pace-setting Benson Bunnies show off their wares before the Tiger fans.

Currently riding at the peak of the Gate City cage race, the Bunnies are strong favorites to trim a graduate-riddled Tiger quintet. Fremont dropped its opener to Lincoln high last week while the Bunnies were sailing past North.

Plenty of cage action is in store for Omaha fans with three top games slated for the Gate City.

The Northeast Rockets will be getting their third straight bitter test of the young campaign when they travel to the North Vikings court. The Rockets were overtime victims at Scottsbluff but showed plenty of savvy in knocking off North Platte during their westward swing last week.

Coach Darrel Genzlinger should pick up the first win of his career with the Beatrice Orangemen when they host the Wilber Wolverines in their season opener.

Defending Champion Scottsbluff has a double engagement with the Boys Town Cowboys with games slated for both Friday and Saturday nights.

Haney Signs As New Buc Field Chief

Ex-Hollywood Manager Takes Pittsburgh Post

By JOE BRADIS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fred Haney, who won two pennants in four years as skipper of the Pacific Coast League Hollywood Stars, took on the biggest managerial headache of his baseball career Thursday—pulling the luckless Pittsburgh Pirates out of the National League cellar.

Haney signed a one-year contract as Pirate manager to succeed Billy Meyer, who resigned after the 1952 campaign. Meyer, bothered by stomach trouble, said he couldn't take another tough season at the helm of the rookie-dotted Bucs.

Neither the Pirates nor Haney disclosed how much money the new 54-year-old manager will draw for his second whirl in the major league field general department in 11 years. Haney piloted the St. Louis Browns from 1939 through 1941.

Signing of Haney surprised no one. But his one-year contract surprised everybody. There had been considerable conjecture that Haney wanted more than a one-year pact, the kind General Manager Branch Rickey prefers to dish out. But Haney flew here from the Coast, talked a while with Rickey and the agreement was sealed.

Haney returned to baseball in 1949 with Hollywood after six years as a radio commentator. Hollywood won the pennant in 1949, finished third in 1950, second in 1951 and first in 1952.

Haney broke into the major leagues in 1922 with the Detroit Tigers. He also played with the Boston Red Sox, the Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Cardinals. Twice he hit over the .300 mark.

His first managerial job was with the American Association Toledo Mudhens in 1935. He moved up to the Browns in 1939, finishing eighth. His club was sixth in 1940 and 1941. He returned to Toledo in 1942, finishing fourth. The next season he took a job as a radio commentator.

In 11 years as manager, Haney's clubs won two pennants, landed second twice, third once, fourth once, fifth once, sixth once and eighth three times.

Quarterbacks: Rex Fischer, Oakland; Norman Cosfel, David City; Don Trauthen, North Platte.

Halfbacks: Bill Hawkins, Beatrice; Franklin Reeves, Rushville; Don Patton, Alliance; Jack Braley, Miles City, Mont.; Jon McWilliams, Sidney; John Nolan, Mechanicsville, N. Y.; Jim Thorell, Loomis; Doran Post, Shelton; Leo Scherer Jr., North Platte.

Fullbacks: Sylvester Harris, Kansas City, Mo.; Ernest Benjamin, Cass Lake, Minn.; Ardin Phifer, Red Cloud.

ADD THAT AGAIN!—That's what A. Q. Schimmel, president of the Lincoln Civic Baseball Association, tells Arch Baley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, when the latter reports on the progress made in the drive to keep Western League baseball in Lincoln. When the recount was made, it totaled over $14,000 and everyone began to breathe easier as the first day's pledges sent the drive off to a flying start. Looking on is Bill Murrell. (Star Photo.)

Game Commission Reports First Deer Hunt Violation

CHADRON, Neb. (AP)—The State Game Commission Thursday reported the first violation of the Nebraska buck and doe hunting seasons.

Game Commission personnel arrested John Friede of Sidney charging that he attempted to take a deer without a permit. Friede was fined $5 and costs and his rifle confiscated in Morrill County Court in Bridgeport Thursday.

Friede was arrested two miles west of Lisco Wednesday night.

Meanwhile another 87 hunters killed does Thursday bringing to 647—almost 65 per cent of the 1,000 permit holders—the checked in game at the game commission stations.

The Thursday total was well under those of previous days, and it was expected that hunters would have increasing difficulty finding does in the remaining three days.

Nebraska's amazing injury-free record was extended another day. Not one gun accident with a resultant injury has been reported to the game commission since the first deer hunt in 1945. Total injury-free hunting days to date stands at 76 days or two and one-half months of hunting.

Crawford maintained its leadership in doe hunting traffic checking 22 deer during Thursday operations. Crawford's season total is 183. The other stations and their accumulative totals are Chadron 125, Bridgeport 130, Gering 116, Harrisburg 63 and Harrison 30.

Program Of NCAA Sent To Members

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A 10-point program intended to strengthen enforcement machinery of the NCAA and its allied conferences has been mailed to 406 member schools by the association's membership committee.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, who released the report Thursday, said the program has been approved and adopted by the NCAA council, 17-man policy directing body of the association.

The report will be brought before the full membership at the NCAA's 47th convention in Washington, D. C., Jan. 8-10.

The committee recommendations include:

"Sponsor a meeting of conference representatives to consider ways and means to strengthen conference enforcement machinery, to provide for inter-conference investigating assistance and to dovetail the conference enforcement activities of the NCAA.

"Develop ways and means whereby the NCAA can obtain on-the-spot checks of the veracity of replies to inquiries from the association.

"Define in clear and definite terms the disciplinary authority of the council and the authority of the annual convention.

"Discuss with representatives of the various state high school athletic associations possible means of assisting one another in attacking problems of mutual concern."

Meat Shoot Scheduled

The Salt Velley Gun Club has scheduled ham and bacon and poultry shoots for Sunday at its grounds north of Lincoln. Shooting will begin at 1:30 p.m. There will be practice targets for all shoots.

Rocky Will Defend Title Early In 1953

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Rock Marciano will defend his title against Jersey Joe Walcott in late March or April, promoter Jim Norris said Thursday.

The president of the International Boxing Club said five cities, including Chicago, are being considered for the return bout and that decision on the site would be made within a week.

Norris met Thursday with Al Weill, who manages Marciano.

Omaha Cards Sign Pact With St. Joe

OMAHA (AP)—The Omaha Cardinals of the Class A Western League have signed a working agreement with St. Joseph of the Class C Western Association for 1953, it was announced Thursday.

President Robert H. Hall of the Omaha club said the agreement was with W. L. Hagerty of St Joseph. St. Joseph formerly was affiliated with the St. Louis Cardinal farm system. It has no working agreement in 1952. Omaha is a Cardinal farm club.

PCC Votes To Offer Renewal Of Rose Bowl Pact To Big Ten

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The Pacific Coast Conference Thursday voted to invite the Big Ten Conference to renew its Rose Bowl pact for three years when the present contract expires Jan. 1, 1954.

The coast faculty representatives stressed the point that the invitation will not be extended in the event there is any anti-bowl legislation enacted at the NCAA convention in Washington, D. C., early next month.

The NCAA convention will receive a report at that time from its extra-events committee, which is headed by Wilbur Jones of UCLA. The nature of the report on the bowl games has not been disclosed, but there are indications that it will continue the go signal for the major post-season games in the nation.

Thursday's action by the Coast Conference refuted a statement made recently by Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State College, who criticized the Rose Bowl game and added that he believed most of his colleagues on the coast felt the same way he did.

The Rose Bowl agreement is a three-way deal between the two conferences and the Tournament of Roses Association of Pasadena. The coast has until March 15, 1954, to renew its relations with the tournament association.

The announcement was made as the conference held the final sessions of its winter meeting.

Pending official action, however, speculation persists that the Big Ten vote will be 6-4 or 7-3 against renewal.

Some Big Ten officials insist that the series will be resumed if Southern California defeats Wisconsin Jan. 1 to give the PCC its first Rose Bowl victory since the series began.

If the vote were cast now, the best guess is that Iowa, Michigan State, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin would oppose continuation of the series. Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio State would be for it.

Illinois, however, would be on the affirmative side only unless a team is limited to one appearance in three years.

Fremont Hosts Benson Bunnies In Top Cage Tilt; Northeast Rockets To Omaha North Domain

By JIM CLARK
Star Sports Staff Member

THE prep cage spotlight swings to Fremont tonight when the pace-setting Benson Bunnies show off their wares before the Tiger fans.

Currently riding at the peak of the Gate City cage race, the Bunnies are strong favorites to trim a graduate-riddled Tiger quintet. Fremont dropped its opener to Lincoln high last week while the Bunnies were sailing past North.

Plenty of cage action is in store for Omaha fans with three top games slated for the Gate City.

The Northeast Rockets will be getting their third straight bitter test of the young campaign when they travel to the North Vikings court. The Rockets were overtime victims at Scottsbluff but showed plenty of savvy in knocking off North Platte during their westward swing last week.

Coach Darrel Genzlinger should pick up the first win of his career with the Beatrice Orangemen when they host the Wilber Wolverines in their season opener.

Defending Champion Scottsbluff has a double engagement with the Boys Town Cowboys with games slated for both Friday and Saturday nights.

Field House Solution Is Seen Near

City Planners Studying Northeast High Building

The City Planning Commission has expressed the belief that an early and satisfactory solution to the Northeast High School field house building problem will be found.

At one time, the Board of Education planned to construct the new field house northeast of the high school. That location, however, was found to be in conflict with the route of the proposed new southeast diagonal.

To meet the problem, the Board has now settled on erection of the field house adjoining the school on the south.

Since that site would call for the closing of Randolph, a major entrance into the arterial, the Planning Commission has been working on the use of other streets as a bypass for Randolph.

Lovelace Confident

E. H. Lovelace, member of the Bartholomew city planning firm employed by Lincoln, said he is "confident" a satisfactory arrangement can now be worked out.

The Planning Commission is also studying a proposal by Col. H. R. Turner to erect a National Guard armory on the Rogers tract at 33rd and O. Turner also suggested a park site on No. 10th and the southwest corner of 30th and D as possible locations for the estimated $400,000 armory.

Paul Watt, resident engineer for the City Planning Commission, said the commission has taken the proposals under study. While expressing no opinion on the Rogers tract proposal, Watt pointed out that the Bartholomew firm has planned on other developments for the tract.

As presented to the commission, the guard would prefer a deed to the 300 by 300 tract needed but would take a lease on the land.

Omaha Licensees Get Suspension Periods Shortened

The Liquor Commission Thursday shortened the suspension period of three Omaha licenses in consideration of employees of the establishments who have not had work for six weeks.

The estabishments originally drew 60-day suspensions for allowing customers to loiter on the premises. All three places hold class "C" licenses.

But Thursday the commission announced it had decided to allow the places to begin operating under their licenses on Saturday, when 45 days of the suspensions period wil have elapsed.

If the original 60-day period were to stand, the commission explained, employees of the establishments would be without work before and during the Christmas holidays.

The establishments are Charles F. Bradehorst, 602 North 16th St.; Sarah Cooper, 2024 North 24th St.; and Standard Liquors, Inc., 1818 North 24th St.

School Segregation Hearings End

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Supreme Court's momentous school segregation hearings ended Thursday with a lawyer charging that Delaware acted arbitrarily in setting up separate schools for Negroes.

The high tribunal took under advisement five cases affecting the District of Columbia, Delaware, Virginia, South Carolina and Kansas. No decision is expected until next year.

Attorney Louis L. Redding demanded that the court uphold a Delaware state decision admitting members of his race to white public schools. He said to do otherwise would violate the constitution.

Delaware Attorney General H. Albert Young called for reversal of the order by the State Supreme Court because he said it "indirectly abolished segregation" and offers "no permamency, no stability to the problem."

The order under attack would permit resumption of segregation after Negro facilities are improved.

Segregation in D. C.

Earlier, the high court was told that Congress authorized racial segregation in District of Columbia schools to elevate Negroes and has kept it for their good.

Counsel Milton D. Korman, representing the district's school board, said he prays the day will arrive when Negroes will be welcomed into white children's Congress and not the court to decide.

Negro Attorney James M. Nabrit Jr., assailed Korman's contention that segregation in the district is permitted under the U. S. constitution.

He declared: "The nation's capital—the capital of the free world—is no place for a segregated school system. This country cannot afford it. The constitution does not permit it and the statutes do not authorize it."

Korman denied that Congress intended to "stamp a badge of inferiority" on Negroes when it provided for their education in the Civil War era but instead intended "to help these people who had been in bondage."

He declared: "We cannot hide our faces and our minds to the fact there is feeling between races. It is a deplorable fact but it exists."

Titus Sentenced To 5-Year Pen Term For Hickman Robberies

The young man who robbed four Hickman stores and entered two others on Oct. 9 was sentenced Thursday to serve five years in the state penitentiary.

Darold Titus, 21, Crete, who pleaded guilty to the burglary charge, was also sentenced to serve seven years in the penitentiary on a charge of parole violation in Crete.

District Judge John L. Polk ordered the sentence to run concurrently with the seven year sentence.

Titus has a previous offense record which includes a commitment at the Boys' Training School in Kearney, a term in an Arizona prison for violation of the Dyer Act, and a burglary offense in Saline County where he received a three year bench parole.

He told officers that he decided to rob the Hickman stores when his car ran out of gas there two or three nights before the robberies. At that time, he said, he could not awaken anyone in the town in order to obtain gas.

Pleasanton GI Rushed From Korea; Father Ill

KEARNEY, Neb. (AP)—Pfc. Darold Carman of Pleasanton was in Seoul, Korea last Friday when he learned his father was critically ill. Monday night, the young soldier was home.

It all started last Tuesday when the physician attending John T. Carman here notified the Kearney Red Cross office that Darold should be brought home.

Mrs. Stella Christie, local Red Cross secretary, sent a wire to Washington, which was relayed to the Adjutant General's office. The order for Darold's release from duty was sent to Korea.

At mid-morning Friday Korean time, Pfc. Carman was notified of his father's illness. At mid-afternoon, he took off by plane for Tokyo. This was only a few hours before President-elect Dwight Eisenhower left from the same field.

In Tokyo, Carman had to wait 31 hours to get a plane headed for the states. Once in San Francisco, he boarded an airline plane and flew to Denver. After a 4-hour layover there, he boarded another plane for Grand Island.

Although Eisenhower stayed in a building not far from where the Nebraskan lived, Darold did not see Ike. He said after he knew the President-elect was in Korea, the picked up news broadcasts from the United States telling of conferences being held by the general in New York.

A manual teletype operator with the Signal Corps in Eighth Army headquarters in Seoul, he had been in Korea 15½ months. He had been scheduled to leave Korea on rotation Jan. 3 for 52 days of accumulated leave.

"I began marking the days off a calendar by my bunk last May," he said in anticipation of coming home.

Governor To Refer Woods Home Offer To State Senators

Gov. Val Peterson said Thursday he would refer to the Legislature meeting in January the offer of the home of the late Lincoln business leader Frank Woods as a new mansion for the governor.

Gov. Peterson described the offer as a generous one and the Woods home a fine piece of property. But, he said, it would cost more to operate than the present mansion so he was leaving it to "the people's representatives to decide."

New Cudahy Director

OMAHA (AP) — The Cudahy Packing Co. announced Thursday the election of Frank J. Madden, the company's general counsel since 1941, as a director of the company.

President Claims Wage Board Member Problem Is Licked

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman and his economic stabilizer said Thursday they have licked the problem of getting business men back on the Wage Stabilization Board.

Putnam

Truman told a news conference he expects to have the crippled board back on its feet before the end of this week, with a whole new panel of industry representatives.

The board fell apart last Saturday when all seven of its industry members quit en masse with a bitter blast at Truman's intervention in the soft coal miners' wage case. They said Truman's overruling of a board decision in the case made the controls program a "mockery."

Pressure immediately began building up from business organizations and at least one big labor organization — the CIO — for a junking of controls.

Vacant Seats

But Truman said Thursday he would have plenty of volunteers from industry's ranks for the vacant wage board seats before the week is out. He said he also expects to have a new economic stabilization administrator when Roger Putnam steps out of that post on Jan. 1.

Putnam, who bowed to the President's action in the coal case although he was against it, followed up by telling reporters the problem of reconstructing the wage board "has been solved."

Putnam said at least half a dozen business men and industrialists, including "some quite big names," have telegraphed him that they disagreed with the action taken by the industry members who quit the wage board.

Desire to Return

He said he has sent the names of seven or eight men who have agreed to serve on the board to the White House.

Truman verified reports that Michael V. DiSalle, the former price administrator who made an unsuccessful bid for a U. S. Senate seat from Ohio last month, is under consideration for Putnam's job. Both Putnam and Henry Fowler, mobilization chief, have expressed a desire to return to private life.

Truman underscored his determination to keep wage-price controls in effect by declaring they should be extended beyond April 30, the date set by the last Congress for their expiration.

The Wage Stabilization Board, required by law to have equal representation of organized labor, the public, and industry, has been unable to function since it lost its industry panel.

Meanwhile the backlog of more than 12,000 applications for approval of wage increases, is growing.

Work Resumed After Picket Line Removed

OMAHA (AP)—Pickets were removed from Omaha's flood-damaged sewer system Thursday and repairs to the system were resumed.

There was no union explanation for removal of the pickets, Earl Hawkins Sr., president of the Parsons Construction Co., said.

Work on the sewer project was halted Monday by a strike of Local 1140, AFL International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union of America.

Union Representative Leonard Schaefer called the walkout to enforce demands for a "heavy construction" contract and risk pay of 25 cents an hour for work done 10 feet underground.

Hawkins said no union demands were met and he didn't know whether workers would be allowed to finish the sewer project or be called out again.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

ONE MAN'S OPINION By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed By International News Service)

Ike's preparation of his inaugural address while on shipboard makes sense. . . . Probably figured we had been at sea so long he might as well ride with the tide until after January.

☆ ☆ ☆

Kiernan

Information is that it will not be quite the fighting speech that Reuther made in accepting his presidency. . . . Ike just has to lead the whole country but Walter has those steel men looking over his shoulder.

☆ ☆ ☆

Walt gave us that old one about the bloated barons and the fat cats and how labor is going to win its struggle but didn't quite get around to telling us what is this struggle that labor seems to be engaged in without us noticing it.

☆ ☆ ☆

Golly, last time we looked there were jobs for everyone, pay high and labor didn't seem to be struggling with any more than its Christmas list.

But I guess if you aren't good at describing a 10-round fight, even if mythical, you don't get to be what is known as "a leader of labor."

QUIRKS

WITH THE 40TH DIVISION—Pvt. Charles D. Spligh of Spotswood, Va., helped a Communist soldier to escape and received the thanks of his company commander.

While on guard duty Spligh saw a Communist soldier racing up the hill toward allied lines. Two other Red soldiers pursued the fleeting North Korean.

Spligh covered the running North Korean as he charged up the hill and dived into the American trenches.

Spligh explained: "I guess he wanted to be free so I helped him escape—to our lines."

CommoditiesEased; Lard At 11-Yr. Low

CHICAGO (AP)—All commodities eased on the Board of Trade Thursday with loose lard breaking to another new low in more than 11 years.

Soybeans and wheat were the weakest of the grains, particularly in the nearby deliveries. Beans managed to rally as much as two cents from their day's low before the finish but wheat could not work itself into a real rebound.

Loose lard sold at $7.50 a hundred pounds, lowest price since April, 1951, when a low of $6.97½ was established. All lard futures broke to new seasonal lows in heavy liquidation. Heavy local supplies and limited consumer demand are in back of the lard price drop, brokers said.

Wheat closed ¾-1¾ lower, corn ⅛-⅝ lower, oats unchanged to ⅝ lower, rye unchanged to ⅝ lower, soybeans ⅝-2⅛ lower and lard 18 to 30 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Wheat was a big disappointment. Overnight 17 cargoes of wheat were sold for export to Italy, the United Kingdom and Australia. Italy took the big bulk.

The Agriculture Department announced 334 million bushels of 1953 crop wheat had been put under government loan by Nov. 15 compared with 186 million bushels by Nov. 30 in the preceding year.

Weakness in lard tended to unsettle soybean oil, which was bid at 17⅞ cents a pound against 13 cents Wednesday. Soybean meal slumped 50 cents a hundred pound.

Traders heard reports oats were being ordered out of elevators in Minneapolis with the possibility they would come to this market.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Selected railroads and utilities eased in a slow bond market Thursday.

Many medium priced railroads were under pressure from profit takers cashing in on recent gains. Industrials ended mixed. U. S. government bonds were unchanged to 1-16 of a point lower. The corporate list drifted lower throughout the day in cautious trading.

Volume declined to $3,542,000 par value from $3,881,000 Wednesday and $4,267,200 a week ago.

Uneven Stocks Laid To Tax Adjustments

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market felt the increasing weight of year-end tax adjustment transactions Thursday, and for the second session in a row, prices failed to adhere to any clear-cut pattern.

Aggressive buying lifted selected issues to new highs at the same time that a number of highly regarded stocks were subjected to selling pressure.

The conflicting cross-currents within the general market seemed to bear out the views of many Wall Street analysts that investors were wasting no time in re-investing the funds made available once their tax sales were recorded.

Among the outstanding performers in the industrial division today with gains of major fractions to more than a point were Allis Chalmers, Commercial Solvents, Bethlehem Steel, Gimbel Bros., Caterpillar Tractor, Clark Equipment, Seaboard Oil, and Texas Pacific Land Trust. The low-priced Pepsi-Cola was extremely active and fractionally higher.

The same crazy-quilt pattern was noted among the rails, where profit-taking was more of a factor. Southern Pacific preferred bounded up more than 2 points, and Nickel Plate was up more than 1, both to new highs. On the other hand, losses of nearly a point each at their lows were sustained by Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Northern Pacific, and Great Northern.

Curb stocks were mixed. U. S. Governments eased in an irregularly lower bond market. Cotton rallied sharply while grains sagged in commodities.

Dulles Tells Church Leaders 'U.N. Is Inadequate'

DENVER (INS)—Secretary of State-designate John Foster Dulles declared Thursday night the United Nations is "inadequate and faulty" and said the U. S. should take the lead in making the U. N. a more effective instrument for world "order and justice."

Dulles made the criticism of the U. N. in a speech recorded before he left on the trip to Korea with Gen. Eisenhower.

In the address, broadcast at the General Assembly of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. at Denver, Dulles outlined this three-point program to help win world peace:

1—Intensification of American efforts to "perfect an organization for world peace and justice."

2—Concentration on ending discrimination in this country to improve our position in the eyes of the world.

3—Increased aid by private citizens and organizations to the less fortunate peoples of the world.

Only A Beginning

Dulles, who is with the President-elect in Hawaii, said the United Nations has had "substantial and impressive" successes, but is only a "beginning" in the right direction.

He noted there will probably be a general meeting of member nations to review the U. N. charter in 1955 and said this would correspond in importance with the 1945 San Francisco conference where the U. N. was launched. Under the charter such a meeting is recommended every ten years to review the U. N. set-up and bring about any changes in rules and operations found, from experience, to be desirable.

Two European church leaders warned at a council gathering that Christianity must survive behind the iron curtain if the world itself is to survive.

Bishop Otto Dibelius, head of the Evangelical Church of Berlin-Bradenburg, termed survival of Christianity in Germany "a vital question for all the world."

Godless Communism

Germany through Russian eyes is a vast battlefield on which the forces of materialism and Godless Communism and the small legions of Christianity contend for superiority.

Bishop Diebelius charged: "The whole ire of the Communists is poured on the youth work of the church—they (the Communists) have not yet dared to prohibit our youth work completely—but our youth is restricted to small meetings in parish rooms."

Elfan Rees of Geneva, Switzerland, advisor on refugee problems to the world council of churches, echoed the bishop's sentiments and said:

"The church is in a life and death struggle for the soul of Europe and for its own existence."

He warned that the churches have ceased to enjoy a monopoly of leadership with the resumption of such secular groups as political parties and trade unions which went out of existence in Europe during the war."

Soil Stabilization Method Discussed At Resources Meet

"Soil stabilization by the injection method" was discussed before the Nebraska Co-ordinating Committee for Missouri Basin Resources Development.

George Johnson of the Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation District presented a paper on the methods by which a "slurry mixture of soil and water is injected under high pressures" to bolster dam structures as well as prevent water seepage in canals, irrigation gates, and other hydraulic structures.

The method has been used for several years in the Tri-County irrigation district, but Wednesday's meeting sought greater adoption of the method in other areas.
